

U. S. PITTED AGAINST AGGRESSORS

Soft Coal Mine Closing Refused; Telephone Tieup May Be Averted

PITS UNSAFE, IS CHARGE OF
JOHN L. LEWISGOVERNMENT ASKED TO SHUT DOWN
ALL BUT TWO

BY MAX HALL
Washington, April 5 (P)—A prolonged shutdown of the soft coal mines was threatened tonight as John L. Lewis and Secretary of Interior Krug in a new war of words, charged each other with responsibility for the miners' safety.

Lewis, firing first, requested that the government close down, pending reinspection, all the 2,531 mines it operates throughout the nation except two previously found safe by federal inspectors. Krug shot back a rejection of what he called that "arbitrary procedure." He previously had ordered 518 mines closed as "dangerous" and he said he would allow the others to open unless the local union safety committees find "imminent danger" in them.

Prospects Uncertain
The upshot of all these developments was uncertainty over what the miners will do Monday when their six-day "mourning" work stoppage officially ends, and the prospects that many mines may remain closed.

Krug turned down Lewis' request that all but two of the government's mines be closed after a huddle with aides which lasted all afternoon.

The rejection was sent to Lewis in a letter from the Navy captain N. H. Collison, coal mines administrator under Krug's supervision.

Collison wrote: "I have carefully considered your request and am unable to agree that I should follow the arbitrary procedure of closing down the entire soft coal industry when the Krug-Lewis agreement provides a means by which the union may guard against working in unsafe mines."

Lewis and Krug carry on their dealings through Collison. They have no direct dealings since the government forced Lewis and his United Mine Workers last December to end their strike.

Intimidation Claimed
Collison told Lewis he wanted to emphasize that the mine safety committees of local unions have power under the Krug-Lewis agreement of last May 29 to withdraw the men from any mine if they consider it to be unsafe as to present an "imminent danger."

Lewis told a congressional committee Thursday that the local committees had been "intimidated" by the federal court decision blocking the strike and also by the threat of prosecution under the Smith-Connally act which prohibits strikes in plants operated by the government.

Lewis made a sudden request of

Floods Cause
New Havoc In Lower State

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Engulfed by flood waters, vast areas of southern Michigan lay inert Saturday night as a forbidding Easter weekend spread more calamity.

Imperiled families by the hundreds had fled from inundated homes—in both metropolitan centers and hamlets—and the worst seemed yet to come.

The flood already was marked the most severe in years. The damage toll seemed certain of going high into the millions.

Flood crests were not expected to be reached in some of the hardest-hit sections before Monday or Tuesday as the state braced against a threat of its "worst flood."

The crisis worsened by the hour in Grand Rapids and Flint, cities of a half million total population. As the rain-swollen Grand River continued to rise, 300 families prepared to flee from their homes in the north and south sections of Grand Rapids.

Authorities warned an estimated 2,000 persons in the southern part of Flint to abandon their menaced homes.

As the hazardous night wore on, the Coast Guard at Mt. Clemens said it might be necessary to remove forcibly some families from the Clinton River flats. The water was six feet deep.

Army crash boats and other rescue equipment was enroute from Selfridge Field to help in evacuation work.

A Pontiac youth, William Lucas, 19, was electrocuted as he worked on sodden ground to repair an electric line beneath his house.

MINISTERS LINE UP REICH RULETimetable Adopted For German Provisional Government

BY WES GALLAGHER
Moscow, April 5 (P)—The foreign ministers agreed tentatively tonight on establishing seven administrative agencies for Germany and adopted a timetable under which a provisional government would be created 12 months after the agencies come into being.

The ministers bogged down, however, on issues connected with the makeup of the agencies, which would administer on a national basis such matters as food, transport, communications, industry, finance and foreign trade.

The United States, Britain and Russia were agreed upon creation of the agencies. At today's session the French said they would go along with the other three, provided these conditions were attached:

1. German agencies should be under administration of a committee made up of representatives of the German states.

2. The Saar should be excluded from authority of the agencies, as well as a Soviet stipulation each zone commander should have power to veto in his zone any directive from one of the agencies when he considered it in conflict with Allied control council policy.

Marines Reinforced To Wipe Out Japs

Honolulu, April 5 (P)—Fleet Marine headquarters today dispatched 25 Marine reinforcements from Guam to Peleliu, where 32 Japanese holdouts have remained in hiding since the war.

The reinforcements, headquarters said, were "for further protection" of civilians and natives of Peleliu.

PLANE TURNS BACK
Washington, April 5 (P)—American Airlines said tonight that a Trans-Atlantic Constellation which ran into trouble after taking off from New York for London landed safely here at 7:15 p. m. (EST).

The plane at one time had been reported planning to land in Philadelphia but was rerouted to Washington.

NICARAGUA LEADER DIES
Managua, Nicaragua, April 5 (P)—Dr. Salvador Buitrago Diaz, 64, a leader of the conservative party of Nicaragua and former minister of the interior, died today of heart disease. He also served as a justice of the Nicaraguan supreme court from 1914 to 1918.

HERE'S THE POINT—Sen. Arthur Vandenberg, of Michigan, leg draped informally over back of a chair in the Senate gallery, enthusiastically explains to newsmen his plan for partial UN control of proposed American aid to Greece and Turkey.

RED RAID KILLS
5 U. S. MARINESChinese Communists Out After Ammunition;
Many Wounded

BY JOHN RODERICK
Tientsin, China, April 5 (P)—Ammunition hungry Chinese Communists killed five U. S. Marines and wounded 16 today in a smartly planned raid on the Marines' principal north China depot, at Hsinho, 22 miles east of Tientsin.

Most if not all of the Marine deaths occurred when the raiders blew up part of the dump. The Communists left six of their own dead on the scene of the four hour and 15 minute battle and carried away an estimated 100 wounded. No prisoners were taken on either side.

Four hundred Chinese government troops took up the pursuit northward while Marine observation planes kept the retreating raiders under surveillance.

The Marines themselves organized a heavily armed convoy under Col. Julian N. Frisbie, commander of the Fifth regiment. (This dispatch thus implied, but did not flatly state, that the Marine convoy was a punitive expedition.)

A Marine statement said identification of the dead Chinese left no doubt that they were Communists.

Fourteen of the wounded Marines required surgery and three were critically hurt. However, the First division's surgeon, Dr. Eugene V. Jobe, expressed hope that all would recover.

Gary Area Under Water, Two Killed

Indianapolis, April 5 (P)—Wind and rain storms struck scattered parts of Indiana today, claiming two lives in the Calumet area near Chicago and flooding some regions.

Damage was reported from several sections stretching from Lake Michigan southward to south-central Indiana.

An automobile left a water-covered pavement at Hammond and landed upside down in nine feet of flood water in normally swampy Lake George. Byron Dever, 36, of Hammond, was drowned in the car but passing motorists rescued his wife, Fay, 31.

Mrs. Myron Shoop, 60, also of Hammond, was walking head-down against a driving rain when she was killed by a Nickle Plate freight train.

Sixty per cent of Lake county (Gary-Hammond-East Chicago) was reported under water after the downpour.

Monk Doffs Robes
To Save Boy, 14

Detroit, April 5 (P)—A monk discarded his robes here today to rescue a 14-year-old boy from drowning in the flooded river when his makeshift raft collapsed.

Brother Emmett Linden, a member of the Passionist Fathers at St. Paul's monastery, witnessed the accident. Brother Linden doffed his outer robes and plunged into the river to rescue the boy.

Very Light Vote Is Predicted In Michigan Monday

BY JACK I. GREEN
Lansing, April 5 (P)—On the basis of politicians' predictions of a state-wide vote of between 300,000 and 400,000 ballots in Monday's biennial spring election, Michigan may be facing its smallest April election in history.

Leaders of both major political parties are reported pursuing a general policy of attempting to "sneak up" on the opposing party, with the result that neither has beat the war drums for a heavy vote.

A combination of lack of interest and spring floods which may keep many voters from the polls has produced estimates of a record small vote.

John A. Wagner, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, predicted Saturday a turnout of 325,000 voters. If his estimate is close, the figure will be the smallest ever recorded.

In 1917, as the nation was entering the first World War, the total vote was 377,000. Monday's balloting is expected to continue a downward trend which has been noticed since 1935.

Wagner also predicted a Republican sweep that would include Wayne county. He forecast a victory for John A. Kronk, GOP candidate for Wayne county auditor.

The electorate of Michigan Monday has before it 24 candidates of three parties for nine posts in six offices.

In addition, the voters will select circuit judges in 83 county non-partisan judicial elections and fill local offices. In many of these there are no contests.

The state ballot will contain two public questions, neither of which has aroused the voters' interest.

One would abolish non-partisan primary judicial elections in the event of insufficient contests—similar to that in effect now for partisan primaries—the other would permit corporations to hold real estate not needed in their immediate operations for 30 years inside a municipality or within two miles of a municipality of 5,000 population or over.

The first is designed to eliminate the necessity for a useless primary election and the second to permit insurance companies to invest in real estate developments and housing projects in the state.

Here are the candidates for the state offices:

Justice of the state supreme court (full term, two to be chosen): Henry M. Butzel, Detroit, incumbent; Leland W. Carr, Lansing.

TORNADO KILLS
4 IN OKLAHOMAFarm Home Demolished
With Easter Reunion
In Progress

Wister, Okla., April 5 (P)—A violent windstorm struck the Glendale community near here today, killed four persons, injured two others and demolished a farm home where an Easter reunion was in progress.

The dead as listed by the Oklahoma highway patrol were:

George Vaughn, 78, and his wife Nan, 75; a brother Andrew Vaughn, 53, and Jewel Overholt, 35, a daughter of the George Vaughns. The injured were Mrs. Overholt's husband Cecil, 35, and their son Gary Harding, 8. The Overholts were visiting from McAlester, Okla.

The storm, blowing from the southwest about 2 a. m., left a path of destruction about one-fourth mile wide in this area near the Arkansas border.

A tornado struck over the Oklahoma border in southwestern Missouri, causing damage in the Eldorado Springs area estimated at $100,000. No casualties were reported but all telephone lines were blown down.

To the northeast 150 miles another tornado destroyed four farm homes, a rural store and two churches in the Dixie and Hams Prairie communities south of Fulton. No casualties were reported.

ing, incumbent; Patrick S. Nertney, Detroit; and Edward T. Kane, Algonac.

Justice of the supreme court (to fill vacancy, one to be elected):

John R. Dethmers, East Lansing, incumbent; and Maurice E. Tripp, Adrian.

Regents of the University of Michigan two to be elected:

J. Joseph Herbert, Manistiquet, incumbent Republican; Kenneth M. Stevens, Detroit Republican; John L. Brumm, Ann Arbor Democrat; George D. Schermerhorn, Reading Democrat; Harold Lindahl, Iron River, Prohibition; and Clarence E. Nelson, Battle Creek, Prohibition.

Superintendent of public instruction (one to be elected):

Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, East Lansing, incumbent Republican; George F. Montgomery, Detroit Democrat; and H. E. Edwards, Barrien Springs, Prohibition.

State board of education (one to be elected):

Louisa M. Durham, Battle Creek, Republican incumbent; Victor Targonski, Wyandotte Democrat; Oscar C. Griswold, Spring Arbor, Prohibition.

State board of agriculture (two to be elected):

Clark L. Brody, East Lansing, incumbent Republican; Ellsworth E. More, Marshall Republican; William S. Lamoreaux, Comstock Park Democrat; George D. Stevens, Tecumseh, Prohibition; and Lester W. Kline, Mendon, Prohibition.

VARIED RITUALS PLANNED TODAY

Worshippers Gather To Hear Anew Story Of Risen Christ

(By The Associated Press)
With glad song, pageant and ancient ritual the nation's millions of worshippers celebrated the Easter festival today (Sunday) and heard anew the story of the Risen Christ.

As sunrise came across the land thousands were expected at outdoor services in the large centers of population.

Over much of the nation the forecasters promised rain and an unseasonable chill to dampen festive plumage in those stylish Easter parades.

Two hundred thousand were to hear the Easter message at the 22nd annual Holy City pageant, a replica of Jerusalem in the foothills of Oklahoma's Wichita mountains near Lawton, beginning at night and continuing until dawn.

Sunrise services at the Hollywood Bowl and at Glendale, Calif., near Los Angeles, were expected to draw a total of 80,000.

There were a half a dozen outdoor sunrise services scheduled in New York City, including one on the Mall in Central Park.

Massed choirs and corps of trumpeters were to bring their Easter music to Chicago's Soldier Field before 50,000 at a 15th annual dawn service.

San Francisco scheduled its 25th annual sunrise observance atop 938-foot Mt. Davidson with its illuminated 103-foot cross.

Four Persons Dead
In Transport Plane
Crash In Tennessee

Decaturville, Tenn., April 5 (P)—A C-54 transport plane crashed in a storm seven miles southwest of Decaturville today and four persons were reported killed.

Decatur county officers said the plane was believed en route from Memphis to Maxwell Field, Ala. They said the log indicated that the ship was based there.

The plane ran into a heavy rain and windstorm shortly after 2 p. m. and crashed into a hillside when it attempted to land in this heavily wooded section near the Tennessee river.

Carol Avery, Commercial Appeal correspondent, said examination of the bodies indicated the victims were two army air corps officers and two civilians.

BELL SYSTEM
WORKERS SET FOR WALKOUTSEIZURE OF LINES BY TRUMAN STILL POSSIBILITY

BY NORMAN WALKER
Washington, April 5 (P)—Secretary of Labor Schwelbach expressed hope tonight of settling the dispute which threatens a nationwide telephone strike Monday and appealed to union members to "keep on working" while negotiations continue.

"Anything can happen between now and Monday morning," Schwelbach said in a statement.

"I am asking all telephone employees to remain calm and to keep on working until they learn the results of these eleventh hour discussions."

Arbitration Encouraged
A union official in New York had predicted that the telephone workers there would "jump the gun" and start walking out ahead of the 6 a. m. Monday deadline.

Schwelbach's statement came after lengthy talks with J. A. Beirne, president of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, and C. F. Craig, vice-president of the American Telephone and Telegraph company. The secretary saw each separately.

In these talks Schwelbach moved to bring about industry-wide arbitration of the dispute. He also talked of possible "regional arbitration," although this idea was not fully explained.

"Thirty-six hours remain until the strike deadline," Schwelbach's statement said. "Intensive negotiations are going on between the union and company representatives, both in Washington and in a score of other cities around the country."

"Some progress on local issues has been made in some of the local negotiations today. Anything can happen between now and Monday morning."

"I am asking all telephone employees to remain calm and to keep on working until they learn the results of these eleventh hour discussions."

The Labor department planned to go ahead with its conciliation talks far into the night.

Meanwhile President Truman withheld any action toward seizing the telephone lines.

Beirne had said earlier that the Monday strike "still seems inevitable." He called the negotiations at mid-afternoon "a comedy, a farce."

The NFW said 340,000 phone workers will abandon switchboards and stations Monday at 6 a. m. in each time zone unless a settlement is reached on demands for a $12 weekly pay raise, union shop and other concessions. Government statistics say telephone workers now average $43.19 a week.

It appeared likely that Mr. Truman might wait until the last minute, or after a strike develops, before exercising seizure powers under the federal communications act.

In the event he orders seizure, the army or navy probably would be called upon to manage the far-flung phone industry, with its 105,307,000 miles of line, until the dispute is settled.

Two sets of negotiations continued here without sign of appreciable progress on principal issues. One concerned the Bell system long distance operations, the other its affiliated Southwestern Bell Telephone company.

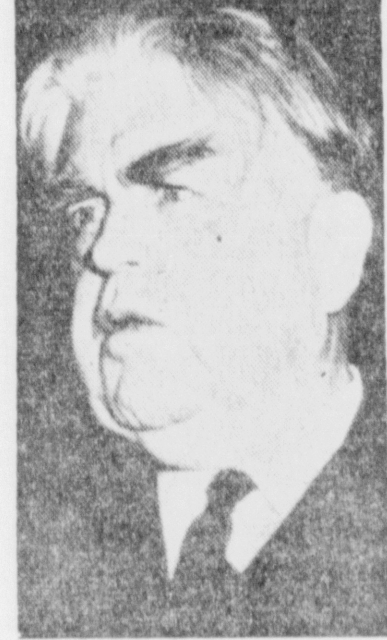

Government conciliation efforts seemed to be concentrated on the talks between Labor department officials and top NFW and Bell system leaders.

The conciliators admitted the outlook looked "grave" with time running out so fast and with so many differences yet to be resolved.

Jackson To Lansing Trains Cancelled; Tracks Washed Out

Lansing, Mich., April 5 (P)—The Michigan Central Railroad system announced tonight that all train schedules between Jackson and Lansing have been cancelled due to a washout of 110 feet of track near Leslie, Mich.

The track was swept away by rising waters from the Sycamore creek. Four small bridges in the area, not railroad bridges, also were washed out, according to the railroad.

CLAIMS MINES UNSAFE—All but two of the 2,531 soft coal mines controlled by the government are unsafe, according to John L. Lewis (above), who demanded that the pits be kept closed Monday for the safety of his United Mine Workers.

WEATHER MARS
EASTER PARADEOutlook Favorable Only In Few Scattered
Parts Of Nation

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The weather went on a wide-spread rampage Saturday, spoiling the outlook for pleasant Easter conditions in much of the nation.

Driving rains, heavy snow, high winds and tornadoes lashed parts of the country, causing serious flood conditions, destroying property and disrupting transportation. Five persons were killed.

In only a few scattered sections was the Sunday weather outlook favorable for Easter parading.

High winds, cloudy skies and cold were forecast for most of the midwest, in the wake of heavy rains that caused flood conditions in several states.

Rain or showers were in prospect for Easter in such widely scattered areas as New York, New England, Virginia, Nebraska, Utah and Idaho.

Heavy rains caused floods in Michigan, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, and New York, and a "potential threat" of floods later in New England.

North Dakota experienced one of the heaviest snow falls of the winter, with 13 inches recorded near the Montana border, blocking some highways.

Two tornadoes, 150 miles apart in Missouri, dipped over telephone wires and destroyed farm homes, while four members of a family were killed in Wister, Okla., when high winds demolished their home.

A storm moving eastward toward the upper Great Lakes region caused a wide belt of excessive rain from northeast Kansas across southwestern Missouri, southeastern Iowa, northern Illinois, northwestern Indiana and southern lower Michigan.

The rain fall measured up to 5.69 inches at LaPorte, Ind.

Globe-Girdling Hop
Is Postponed Again
By Engine Trouble

New York, April 5 (P)—Additional mechanical difficulty tonight further postponement of the takeoff of Milton Reynolds' projected round-the-world trip.

The Chicago pen manufacturer, who hopes to set a new unofficial record of 55 hours in a converted A-26 Douglas bomber, scrapped plans for a 10 p. m. (EST) departure from Newark, N. J., late today after the discovery of a burned out motor for the trailing antenna.

Reynolds then re-set the departure time for sometime between midnight and 1:30 a. m. tomorrow. Earlier difficulties precluded a takeoff at 12:01 a. m. today as originally scheduled.

Tow Line Breaks
As Navy Salvages Tanker Wreckage

Honolulu, April 5 (P)—The jinxed and perverse stern of the wrecked tanker Fort Dearborn broke its tow line last night for the third time, but the navy tug Tawakoni still was trying to bring it in for salvage.

A new line was to be made fast today.

The Fort Dearborn broke in two March 12 in a storm 1,100 miles northwest of Honolulu. Twelve men were lost and 32 were rescued.

TAX SLASHING IS CONDEMNED
BY PRESIDENTCUT PRICES, KEEP ECONOMY STRONG, TRUMAN URGES

BY ERNEST B. VACCARO
Washington, April 5 (P)—President Truman declared tonight the United States "must take a positive stand" against aggression in all its forms and must keep its own economy strong by lowering prices.

In the foreign field, he proclaimed that "we must" aid "those peoples whose freedoms are endangered by foreign pressures." And he specified aggression "secretly by infiltration" as well as openly by armed force.

He also said United States must "stand guard" before the United Nations and, "when necessary" supplement its activities.

Hat In The Ring?
At home, he termed the Republican economy drive in congress "an invitation to disaster" rallied the Democrats against immediate tax cuts and economies he called "false," and earnestly besought lower prices.

The president addressed a Jefferson Day dinner—his first speech under Democratic party auspices since Robert E. Hannegan, the national party chairman, threw his hat into the ring for 1948.

Mr. Truman, while saying nothing about his plans for the next election, set forth his stand on the prime domestic issue of taxes, spending and prices.

He used the occasion, also, to amplify his doctrine of "aiding those peoples whose freedoms are endangered by foreign pressure," declared that "our foreign policy must not be wrecked on the rocks of partisanship," and commended both Democrats and Republicans who have supported it.

Economies Assailed
"We, like Jefferson, have witnessed atrocious violations of the rights of nations," he said.

"We, too, have regarded them as occasions not to be slighted."

"We, too, have declared our protest."

The president did not mention Russia directly, but he significantly compared his present course to that of President Monroe, whose Monroe doctrine was aimed partly at Russian claims in Alaska.

Neither did he refer to the Republicans by name, but he lashed out at the economies they have voted and their plans for tax reduction now.

Mr. Truman said, however, that he will support tax reduction "at the proper time."

He spoke before some 2,000 party bigwigs at a $100-a-plate Jefferson day dinner.

Surplus For 1947
In the first official administration announcement that a balanced budget is in sight by July 1, the president said "now we have worked our way into the black."

"I am happy to be able to say tonight," he continued, "that for the present fiscal year 1947 we shall balance the budget and we shall have a surplus."

The president had not one word to say about his own intentions for 1948 but party leaders made no secret of their belief that it was the 1948 standard-bearer speaking.

Expressing determination "that stringent economy shall govern all peacetime operations of the government," the president said the $37,500,000,000 budget he submitted to congress "marked the borderline beyond which we could not reduce the activities of our government without entering the area of false economy."

Fontana Honored By Taylorcraft

Iron Mountain—Marla Fontana of the Fontana School of Aeronautics has arrived home from Alliance, Ohio, where he attended meetings of and was elected to the board of directors of Taylorcraft, Inc.

Plans for new designs and models in Taylorcraft planes, now being handled in the United States by more than 400 dealers and 50 distributors, were discussed at the meeting. All will be in production in the near future, representatives were told.

Taylorcraft, Fontana said, is one of the largest manufacturers of light planes in this country. It last year produced more than 5,000 planes, known as The Taylorcraft.

Strength of steel falls sharply when heated above 1100 degrees.

Communication

The Editor, Escanaba Press

We have been told by Candidate Derham that he is for us laboring men, but he wrote to some of our employers on March 15th and said: "I have represented you and your insurance company in legal matters. Thus, you know of my work as a lawyer."

Apparently Mr. Derham has attempted to be all things to all men.

He is attempting to make a circus out of his campaign. In Iron Mountain yesterday he used an airplane all day to advertise himself. His method of campaigning for the labor vote indicates his poor opinion of our ability to think. Does he believe that a series of cheap publicity stunts worthy of a side-show will influence our vote? Does he believe laboring men would vote for a biased judge? We want an impartial judge, and whether he believes it or not we will select an impartial one. In my opinion Candidate Derham has insulted our intelligence.

Glenn W. Jackson on the other hand has promised nothing to us or our employers excepting fair and impartial treatment.

Sincerely yours, Fred LaChapell, A Laboring Man.

NELS AHLQUIST STRICKEN HERE

Escanaba Resident, 75, Dies After Several Months Illness

Nels N. Ahlquist of 520 South 16th street, Escanaba, a resident of this city for 54 years, died at 6:50 a. m. yesterday in St. Francis hospital. He had been ill since last August.

Mr. Ahlquist came to this country from Sweden in 1891 and settled in Ford River. After residing there two years he moved to Escanaba and has lived here since. He was employed as night watchman by the Delta Hardware company for the past 22 years. He was born in Sunne, Varmland, Sweden, July 18, 1871.

In Escanaba he was a member of the North Star Lodge, a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Car Men of America, and a charter member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Surviving are his wife, two daughters, Mrs. S. A. (Beatrice) Jacobson of Bismarck, N. D.; and Miss Ruth Ahlquist of Escanaba; one brother, Olof of Escanaba; and a sister, Mrs. Christine Johnson of Sweden.

The body was taken to the Anderson funeral home where it will be in state Monday afternoon.

Funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Anderson funeral home, with the Rev. Gustav Lund of Bethany Lutheran church officiating. Burial will be in the family lot in Gardens of Rest cemetery.

John Groop Will Be Here Thursday

John Groop, Vocational Rehabilitation Field Agent, State Board of Control for Vocational Education, will interview vocationally disabled citizens at Escanaba on Thursday, April 10. Mr. Groop will be at the Michigan State Employment Service office at 8:30 a. m., at the local O. V. A. office at 1:00 p. m., at the Board of Social Welfare office at 1:00 p. m., and at the Delta County Health Office at 3:00 p. m. All vocationally handicapped citizens are eligible for the services of vocational rehabilitation. Services offered are training, medical assistance, and job placement.

Judicial Contest Highlights Spring Election Here On Monday

CIRCUIT JUDGE TO BE ELECTED

Jackson-Derham Race Is First Of Its Kind In 65 Years

Voters will go to the polls Monday in a spring election marked by the contest between Atty. Glenn W. Jackson of Gladstone and Atty. Ray Derham of Iron Mountain for the office of judge of the 25th judicial circuit.

It is the first contest of its kind in the 65-year history of the judicial circuit, which includes the counties of Delta, Menominee, Iron, Marquette and Dickinson. Never before has there been a contest for the office, either in the primary or in the regular election. Both candidates have conducted vigorous pre-election campaigns and have been supported by committees working actively in their behalf.

On Non-Partisan Ballot
The history-making contest resulted when the incumbent, Judge Frank A. Bell of Negaunee, announced last year that he planned to retire at the end of his term Dec. 31, 1947. Judge Bell and all his predecessors were either appointed or elected and reelected without opposition. Judge Bell himself was appointed in 1927 and has been elected each term without a contest.

The names of Jackson and Derham appear on the non-partisan judicial ballot. On that ballot also are the names of candidates for justices of the supreme court, and for justice of the supreme court to fill an unexpired term.

In Delta county the voters will receive two other ballots—the biennial spring election state ballot listing candidates for regent of the university, superintendent of public instruction, member of the state board of education and member of the state board of agriculture.

There is but one county-wide office to be filled, that of county school commissioner. Hagie Quarnstrom, Democrat, is unopposed for that office.

Two Amendments
There are two proposed amendments to the state constitution to be voted on Monday.

No. 1 proposal is to dispense with non-partisan judicial primary elections in the event there is no contest to be decided. The law now permits primary elections to be eliminated if there is no contest in partisan elections, and proponents of the amendment say the same permission should be extended to the non-partisan judicial elections at a considerable saving in cost.

No. 2 proposal is to permit corporations to hold real estate for 30 years in, or within two miles of, a municipality of more than 5,000 population. Legislative sponsors of the amendment declared that insurance interests would invest in large low-cost housing developments in the state if the amendment is adopted. This has taken place in some other states.

Township Contests
In Delta county most of the townships will present ballots to the voters on a slate of candidates for township offices. These include the offices of supervisor, clerk, treasurer, justice of the peace and member of the board of review. In at least six of the county's 14 townships there are contests for one or more offices.

The polls will open in Delta county, both in the cities and townships, at 7 a. m. and will close at 8 p. m.

First—Carnegie Public Library.
Second—Franklin school.
Third—City hall.
Fourth—Jefferson school.
Fifth—Junior High school.
Sixth—Barr school.
Seventh—Fire Station No. 2, North Escanaba.
Eighth—Senior High school.

Reserve Officer Unit To Activate On Monday Night

Army reserve officers in Escanaba and vicinity are informed that the 509th Organized Reserve Composite Group of the 525th Army Service Unit will be activated at a formal ceremony in the Northland hotel, Marquette, Monday evening, beginning at 8.

All reserve officers of the ground and service forces are invited to attend. Pending assignment of each reserve officer, members of the ORC in Marquette and Alger counties are being urged to start their required training under the reserve officer program.

Major Ben T. Stephens, Army Reserve, Marquette, is commanding officer of the 509th ORC group.

Mrs. Hansen, 79, Of Carney Dies

Mrs. Elizabeth Hansen, 79, an early-day resident of Carney, died Thursday in Detroit.

Mrs. Hansen was born in Norway May 16, 1867, and came to Menominee March 8, 1882. She married Andrew Hansen here October 27, 1885, and lived at Carney for 62 years before moving to Detroit.

Survivors are the following children: Arthur Hansen of Carney; Mrs. Marion Chapaton, John, Edward, Glen, Orvis and Elmer Hansen, of Detroit; Walter Hansen in the state of Washington; Charles Hansen of Iron Mountain; and five step-children, Theodore Hansen of Escanaba; Mrs. Louis Guay of Norway; Mrs. Anna Oakes and Mrs. Hilda Stewart in the state of Washington; and Alfred Hansen of Iron River; 13 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Newmark Store At Newberry Is Sold

Newberry—J. A. Burns, resident of the Burns Department Stores, who resides in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, has completed negotiation with A. Louis Newmark for the purchase of his store building and stock, as well as the residence on Newberry Avenue.

Mr. Burns took possession of the store on April 1st. The Burns Department Store has been operating in Newberry for the past 23 years, which is now located in the Foster Building. The two stores will continue in business until after Easter when an announcement will be made relative to the remodeling or construction of a new modern building on the corner location of Newberry Avenue and East John Street, Mr. Burns said.

The Burns Department Stores have stores in Newberry, Sault Ste. Marie and Munising, which place has been recently remodeled with double the floor space. Ira B. Graydon is manager of the Newberry store.

Schedule Cancer Film For Showing In Delta County

A moving picture that tells the story of America's "gangster"—a clear portrayal of the complicated story of cancer—is already scheduled to be shown to a number of organizations in Delta county and is available for additional showings it was announced yesterday by Mrs. A. M. Gilbert, county commander of the Michigan division, American Cancer society.

The Escanaba Lions club will see it at their Monday night meeting, and it will be shown Thursday afternoon to the WSCS of the First Methodist church. Thursday night the film will be viewed by the Bark River PTA, and Friday night by the PTA unit at Stonington. It is scheduled also to be shown to the Webster PTA the night of April 15, and to the Escanaba Women's club the afternoon of April 16.

Produced by the Walt Disney

studios in cooperation with the American Cancer society, the film tells the story of cancer's growth. It is informative, yet gay and interesting. The time of the film is 11 minutes.

Mrs. Gilbert said that an effort will be made to have a doctor or a registered nurse attend each of the meetings, so that questions concerning cancer can be authoritatively answered.

Organizations or groups interested in having the film for their programs are requested to contact Mrs. Gilbert, telephone 1819.

Vote on Monday!

IT SHOULD hardly be necessary in an American democracy, where the people are the master and not the servant of their government, for anyone or any group to beg and plead with the voters to exercise the cherished privilege of the voting franchise. Every citizen qualified to vote should regard his privilege so highly that he would assume his responsibility to cast his ballot without coaxing or prodding.

The unhappy truth, however, is that Americans, with the greatest freedoms and liberties of any people in the world, do not turn out to vote to the same degree that people of many other nations do.

On Monday, the voters of Michigan will elect many of their most important state officials, including judges of the circuit courts and of the state supreme court, regents of the University of Michigan, and members of the state board of agriculture, governing body of Michigan State college. The importance of the election to the people of Michigan cannot be overestimated; yet the apathy of the citizens is so apparent that the governor of Michigan saw the necessity of going before the people in a statewide broadcast Friday night to urge them to do their duty as citizens and to get out and vote Monday.

The current fears of Communist and Fascist infiltration into our governmental offices would mean nothing if all of the voters could be depended upon to cast their ballots at every election. The fears stem from the obvious threat of an organized minority taking advantage of the voting apathy of a majority of the people.

It is particularly important in Monday's election that the voters of Delta county make a special effort to get to the polls and to cast their ballots. The election of a circuit judge for the 25th judicial district is one of the most important responsibilities of the citizenry. Glenn Jackson of Gladstone has the character, the background and the legal experience to do honor and justice to the circuit bench. He needs and deserves the support of the voters of Delta county.

But no matter what your choice may be for circuit judge or for any of the very important state offices being contested in this election, the responsibility—yes, the privilege—to vote is yours to fulfill.

'Phone Strike Threatens

THE possibility of a nationwide telephone strike looms ever larger as the time approaches for the deadline Monday at six a. m. The strike, if it occurs, will cause vast harm to the American people and if the walkout lasts more than a day or two, it will take on the proportions of a national calamity.

The proposal of federal seizure of the telephone industry as a means of forestalling the tieup of the nation's telephone lines offers small encouragement. In the first place, it is doubtful that the president will take this step and even if he does, there is no assurance that the telephone workers would return to their jobs under presidential decree.

Just as the coal industry is the lifeblood of the nation's economic existence, the telephone industry is the nation's nerve system. Modern complex society can not exist long without the vast communication system that is the American telephone service.

Fortunately, the possibility for settlement of the telephone dispute is not remote. The phone workers, for one thing, do not have a John L. Lewis leading them by the nose. The industry is far more cognizant of public reaction than the coal miners are. And, most importantly, the telephone union recognizes that a strike of more than a single day's duration would probably boomerang, resulting in a substantial loss of their own bargaining position. They know that they cannot keep a stranglehold on the nation's throat for long and their past record of public service indicates that they would not care to do so.

This Is Real Money

STATISTICIANS have been busy converting the Florida winter season into decimal points and dollar signs. The figures are interesting.

It is estimated that by April 15, some 400,000 tourists will have visited southern Florida and the Miami area, which is roughly the territory south of Palm Beach and St. Petersburg to Fort Myers and Key West. Figuring five or six days as the average stay—there is little doubt that most visitors stay longer—this adds up to two million tourist visitor days.

Before the war the average visitor spent about ten dollars a day. Thousands got by for considerably less, but thousands more splurged, especially the last year or two, when Miami prices approached the astronomical.

The spending figure is now estimated at twenty dollars a day per individual. Multiplied by two million, we get a minimum of forty million dollars left in the area during the 1946-47 season.

The Miamians sell their sky and sea and sun for far bigger money each year than we do here in the Upper Peninsula. Our trippers do not average even ten dollars a day, and there are not so many of them. But then, Miami and Miami Beach have been at it longer than we have, long enough to build and offer some 260 large hotels in the two city limits alone. We have some distance to go before we can ever reach that figure.

Then, too, our clientele is different, not so wealthy as a rule, nor so splurging, and with more children. The latter are a rarity in the Florida winter season, but they are plentiful with us during school vacation time. All in all, the Upper Peninsula may get a couple of millions from the tourist habit each summer, but we have infinite room to grow. The fact is, we haven't any more than started in this line which sells its assets over and over again, and which Florida has found so profitable.

Further Inquiry is Needed

GOV. SIGLER has made a public apology to the Detroit Council for Youth Service for unfairly labeling that group as a Communist front organization in his testimony before the House committee on un-American activities a week ago.

In explaining how the mixup occurred which led to the erroneous denunciation of the Council for Youth Service as a Communist front group, Gov. Sigler said that the files of the state police investigation of the Council for Youth Service agency were confused with that of the Detroit Youth Assembly which, the governor reported, was definitely left-wing.

If the explanation had stopped at that point, it would have been understandable and the public apology would have ended the situation. Gov. Sigler, however, charged that the Michigan State Police had deliberately framed him into giving the wrong testimony to the House committee. It is a charge much more serious than the public standpoint than whether or not the Council for Youth Service is a Red-tainted organization.

The governor's accusation necessitates further inquiry. If he is correct, the state police situation calls for some head-lopings. If the governor is wrong and he merely passed the blame to the state to avoid his own responsibility for the error, then he did a great disservice to the people by causing a substantial loss in public confidence in an agency that is supposed to be devoted to public service.

Other Editorial Comments

CAMPAIGN FOR JUDGESHIP

(Menominee Herald-Leader)

The campaign for circuit judge highlights interest in the election Monday. The nominees are Glenn Jackson of Gladstone and Ray Derham of Iron Mountain. In the primary campaign the ardent sponsors of Jackson employed billboard advertising to help introduce their candidate to the public, which brought criticism, from some quarters as lacking the dignity that should characterize a judicial campaign. Atty. Denis McGinn of Escanaba, active in support of Jackson, writes of this criticism: "Naturally I felt hurt. With that in mind I requested an opinion of the propriety of such use from former Gov. Wilbur M. Brucker, chairman of the Committee on Professional Ethics of the State Bar of Michigan, whose letter I am enclosing for you. Today when the four page (Derham) newspaper appeared here in Escanaba and word came of the use of an airplane and advertising over Iron Mountain throughout the day I naturally wondered about their use."

Brucker wrote McGinn: "You have requested our opinion as to whether a candidate for circuit judge can ethically use a billboard in connection with his candidacy for that office. Canon 30 of the canons of judicial ethics adopted by the Michigan supreme court covers the matter of 'candidacy for office' and contains no prohibition against the use of this method of campaigning by a candidate for circuit judge. There is no other canon which prevents the use of a billboard. It is our opinion that a billboard may be used by a candidate for circuit judge."

When you go to the polls Monday don't vote for or against a man whose campaign employs billboards or one who uses an airplane to advertise his campaign; vote for the one who you think will preside in our circuit court with the greatest wisdom, learning and fairness. We can judge men's future actions only by their past and the records of both candidates are available to the public.

IS THE DICTIONARY ALWAYS ACCURATE?

As my readers are aware, I have frequently deplored the tendency of American dictionaries to creep along in the oceanic age. I have cited numerous pronunciations, for example, that are dear to the hearts of the lexicographers, but which are completely unknown to the rest of us. I have stressed the necessity for a more accurate, realistic reporting of American English as a living language, instead of the fossilized thing which is preserved so tenderly between the covers of some dictionaries.

I am not alone in so thinking. In a recent editorial, the Saturday Evening Post made substantially the same criticism, and concluded by asking plaintively, "Is there a lexicographer in the house?"

The Post editorial was answered by Dr. Wilfred Funk, who stated that the fault was not with the dictionaries at all, but with the American people; that the dictionaries are simply reporters of what the people say.

Doctor Funk's argument is facile, but it doesn't hold water. Let us turn to the dictionary for a few typical entries. Let us ask Doctor Funk if these examples are accurate reporting of good American speech.

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—Here is a timetable. It is a timetable that speaks eloquently of the terrible dilemma of our time.

October 21, 1939—First meeting of the President's advisory committee on uranium; the first step to consider whether atomic bomb was possible.

December 6, 1941—Decision reached for "all out" effort to achieve the bombs, with reorganization of scientific groups to direct different phases of the project.

August 6, 1945—First atomic bomb in history dropped on Hiroshima, with an estimated 66,000 killed and 69,000 injured.

August 1, 1946—President signs bill passed by Congress creating U. S. Atomic Energy commission, with control over atomic energy project placed in board of civilians.

October 28, 1946—Nomination by President of David E. Lilienthal to be chairman of Atomic Energy commission.

January 27, 1947—Hearings on Lilienthal appointment start before Senate Atomic Energy committee.

March 10, 1947—Confirmation reported to Senate for debate.

March 24, 1947—Debate on confirmation begins.

April 7—Final action of Lilienthal appointment.

Perhaps it is optimistic to put that question mark after April. Those who have set out deliberately to confuse, delay and obfuscate the whole issue mean to set the date ahead as far as possible.

Once the "all out" signal was given, it took little more than three and a half years to develop atomic fission and the atomic bomb. Nearly two years have gone by since the first bomb was dropped, and we have not yet been able to agree on the kind of political administration to which we will entrust this new force.

SUBTLEFUGE IN SENATE

But the debate, which hit a new low in our political life, has done one thing. It has shown, with an almost frightening clarity, the real intentions of those who have used not only direct attack but every kind of cunning and subterfuge to prevent the confirmation of Lilienthal.

That came out finally from Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio. Sen. Taft wants to give atomic energy back to the military. He has repudiated all the careful work of business men and scientists that went into the Acheson-Lilienthal report. He repudiates all the long, painstaking effort of Bernard M. Baruch before the United Nations Atomic Energy commission. Taft of Ohio stands four-square with Andrei Gromyko of Moscow. That is an ironic coincidence which will provide a slightly humorous footnote for history if our children are lucky enough to be able to read the history of this strange era.

The Taft choice is the choice of death instead of life. It seems to imply a deep distrust of the living world; rejecting hope and clinging to distrust and fear. That is a sad commentary at a time of the year when our thoughts turn to a rebirth of the spirit and to the lowly Galilean who brought the world a new vision of faith and hope.

Visible in the background is the figure of Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves, who would once again take over the atomic project if Taft has his way. While Groves has been careful not to go publicly against the expressed wishes of his superiors, some senators are frank in saying that his hints and innuendoes have influenced them.

YOUNG SENATORS LOOK AHEAD

This cuts so many ways. Sen. Owen Brewster of Maine, in perhaps the strangest of all the opposition speeches, seemed to want to forbid the scientists from saying anything about atomic controls. He accused them of threatening a sitdown strike. The scientists will not work in peacetime under the lockstep of the military, and no law that Sen. Brewster may propose can compel them to. That is a fact no amount of oratory can alter.

It is interesting that so much of the courage in this fight has come from the airplane men in the senate—Hickenloper of Iowa, McMahon of Connecticut, Knowland of California, and Morse of Oregon. They are facing forward, not backward.

Conservatives such as Sen. E. H. Moore of Oklahoma oppose Lilienthal because he is a New Dealer in favor of public power. That is an honest point of view which can be respected. It is the intriguing of the Ohio twins, Taft and his colleague, Sen. John W. Bricker, that gives an ominous overtone to this all-important debate. It makes the timetable look like a timetable for Armageddon.

It is found that girls lead most college classes. And they don't do so bad with the male students, either.

"Hey, Lookit What I Got!"

Good Morning!

By The Bugler

ELECTION—Tomorrow is election day in Michigan. It is called the "off year" election because it does not include the election of a governor and other high state officers.

It is reported from lower Michigan that the voters are "apathetic" and are not expected to turn out in large numbers.

Tomorrow is election day in this judicial district—the 25th. Two men, both attorneys, seek to be elected to the position of circuit judge. The one elected will preside for six years in circuit courts in five counties, including Delta.

Tomorrow is election day in the townships. Supervisors, township clerks, treasurers and other officers will be elected. The supervisors compose that important body we call the county board—in reality our county's governing body.

HOW MUCH—There are millions of Americans who have never voted. And there are additional millions who vote only occasionally.

There was a recent story in one of the metropolitan newspapers "exposing" the non-voting club of members of service clubs in that city. No names were used, but the poll lists were checked to see how many of the service club members in the city were registered to vote.

The clubs whose membership was checked included the Rotary, Lions and Kiwanis. The study revealed that 18 per cent of the service club members were not even registered, and that 32 per cent had failed to vote in the last election in that state.

In a republic such as ours a citizen's first right and first obligation is to vote. If that right were taken from us we would not have a democracy.

A THIN LINE—Right now in the United States there are people defending the right of the Communist Party to have a place on the ballot in elections. There are several thousand persons who voted the Communist ticket in Michigan in the last election. A few (if we recall correctly it was less than 10) voted the Communist ticket in Delta county.

There is no Communist Party listed on the ballot for Monday's election, but you will find the Republican, Democratic and Prohibition tickets listing candidates on the state ballot.

In any controversy it is "the right of the people to take sides, to debate the issue, and to form opinions. This is being done today on a national scale on the question of "outlawing" the Communist party.

This column today touches on that subject only because we wish to direct attention to another and more important question: Shall persons who refuse to exercise their franchise in elections be deprived of their citizenship?

BY INACTION—You have heard of—and you probably know—certain people who maintain the appearance of respectability yet live in close association with sin. They are the so-called lilies blooming on the dung heaps, virtuous creatures who may abhor sin but do not openly scorn it.

By inaction they become enemies of virtue—just as American citizens who do not vote by inaction become enemies of the commonwealth.

To live in a country whose government is based on the liberty of the individual and the integrity of officials chosen by the citizens is the highest privilege in the world today. Failure to vote by a large part of the citizenry is obvious evidence of their ingratitude. It is possible to go farther and say that their refusal to exercise their responsibility as citizens should lose them the privilege of citizenship.

DON'T SQUAWK—Official ineptitude and government bungling make front page news all over the country.

But few people ever speak out against the man who lives around the corner who hasn't voted for 40 years. He is a parasite and a threat to democracy. His inaction on election day is an invitation to ship to high-pressure groups that may vote unwisely but too well.

In this country we have heard enemies of Communism say that

INTO THE PAST

Ten Years Ago

Hershey, Pa.—Several thousand angry farmers and "loyal" men and women workers of the Hershey Chocolate Corporation drove more than 1,000 sit-down strikers from the vine-covered factory today after a bloody battle.

Opening Wednesday afternoon, Escanaba's first annual appliance show is now in full swing at the Coliseum, and for the next three days will bring local residents a working picture of the latest in gas and electrical equipment.

McNary, Ariz.—Weary searchers found only burned and broken bodies late today at the spot high in the mountain wilds southeast of here where a luxurious skyliner crashed Saturday night with eight aboard.

Smoke seen through the Eleven Foot Shoals about seven miles from Escanaba across the bay ice yesterday afternoon was believed to be from the Coast Guard cutter Escanaba battering at the bay ice in an effort to open a passage for ore vessels to the docks here.

Twenty Years Ago

New York—Television, a scientific dream ever since the telephone was invented a half century ago, became an actuality today when Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover spoke over the telephone in Washington and was seen as well as heard in the Bell Telephone laboratories here.

Stores and other places of business in Escanaba will be asked officially by a proclamation to be issued by Mayor George G. Gonjessee, to suspend business for three hours—from noon until 3 p. m.—on Good Friday.

"The Will of The Wisp is now at the most critical period and unless we are given the support of Escanaba people in this venture, the spring issue, which will make its appearance the first part of this week, will probably be the last," C. Hjalmar Nelson, co-editor of the magazine, stated on his return from Madison to aid in the publication of the spring number.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington—The speech which Jimmie Byrnes is making at Westminster College, Fulton, Mo., focuses the spotlight on one of the most interesting of President Truman's many unique friends—his blustering, roly-poly Military aide, Maj. Gen. Harry Vaughan.

When Winston Churchill took the long trip to Fulton, Mo., to make his famous speech proposing an Anglo-American alliance against Russia, the world pondered the mystery of why he chose Westminster College, an institution with only 300 students. The answer was that it is Harry Vaughan's Alma Mater.

And Jimmie Byrnes' first speech since retiring as Secretary of State is being made at Fulton for the same reason. In both cases, the President of the United States requested two of the world's most eminent statesmen to speak at the Alma Mater of his military aide.

All of which highlights an observation sometimes made around the White House that Harry Truman would do anything under the sun for his friend, Harry Vaughan. It also accounts for some of the extraordinary activity of the President's ebullient, irrepressible military aide.

In the opinion of seasoned Washington observers, no White House functionary in years has stuck his hand into various branches of the government with such vigor, and frequently with such disdain for the public interest, as the blunt-spoken, likable ex-manufacturers' representative from Missouri who shot from $75 a week to $12,000 a year plus the gold braid, the private limousine, the flunkies and all the power that goes with sitting at the right hand of the President of the United States.

MEDDLESOME HARRY

General Vaughan has not merely sold wrist watches on the Russian black market and boasted about it; not merely turned a pig loose in the offices of J. Edgar Hoover and got a great kick out of the newspaper accounts of it; not merely told the D. C. District Attorney whom he should prosecute, and told the Attorney General of the United States whom he should not prosecute. In addition, this indefatigable gentleman has also tried to tell the Secretary of Agriculture how to run his department and has stuck monkey-wrenches into State Department machinery on behalf of his Royalist friends regarding Greece.

Vaughn's attempt to dictate to Secretary of Agriculture Anderson is considered one of the most meddlesome of the various meddlesome moves which meddling Harry has made backstage in the Truman administration.

Last year when Europe was starving and the American people were eating one slice of bread per meal, Secretary Anderson cut the quotas of grain allocated to distillers and brewers. He felt that with the entire American public asked to forego bread, the liquor and beer interests could forego part of their output.

And as starvation in Europe continued, Anderson also was under pressure to make a still further cut in grain for distillers. At this point, Gen. Vaughan called up and asked Anderson whether distillers' quotas were going to be changed during the next quarter. Anderson replied that he did not think so.

Vaughan seemed satisfied and said no more.

—FRIEND OF WHISKEY DISTILLERS—

Shortly afterward, however, the grain shortage became even worse, and Anderson took another slice out of the distillers' grain quota. Later that day he left town to fill a speaking engagement. While away his assistant, Nathan Koenig, got a phone call from the President's military aide.

"What do you mean, changing the distillers' quota without informing me?" Vaughan stormed. "I'm the one you are to deal with on that. I had assurances that the quotas would not be changed, and I want this order rescinded immediately. Is that clear?"

Vaughan was so vituperative and so emphatic that Koenig called Secretary Anderson on the long distance telephone. He even recommended that Anderson rescind his order and increase the grain quotas for distillers. The general, Koenig warned his chief, was in no mood to be trifled with.

"Tell the general," replied Anderson, after carefully listening to his assistant, "that he was confirmed by the Senate to act as Secretary of Agriculture."

Anderson's previous reductions in distillers' grain quotas stood.

UNDER THE DOME

Supreme Court Chief Justice Fred Vinson, attending the Press Club dinner for Congressmen, spent part of the evening absorbed with Johnny McCabe, long-time chief of the capital page boys—until the Republicans came into power last January.

GOP Congressman Thomas Owens of Chicago has added a new wrinkle for local campaigning. He used his letterhead in the recent Chicago election to urge voters to back his friend, Allen Webber, as alderman of Chicago's 50th ward.

The early days of spring bring the calm before the storm windows are due to be taken down.

Six students at a Michigan college were suspended on charges of trying to steal examination papers. They REALLY failed!

The first time a Joe Louis bout goes the limit the promoter probably will want the customers to pay on the way out, too.

INLAND STEEL SHOWS GROWTH

60,000,000th Ton Of Ingot Steel Made At Indian Harbor

Production of the 60,000,000th ton of ingot steel at its Indiana Harbor plant was announced Wednesday by Wilfred Sykes, president of Inland Steel company.

The record ton was one of 97.3 tons produced in No. 7 furnace of the No. 1 open hearth department and tapped at 10:50 a. m. The steel was of the type which will be rolled into angles in the 14-inch merchant bar mill.

The production mark was attained in slightly less than 45 years. Inland poured its first ton of steel ingots at Indiana Harbor on July 21, 1902. Twenty-one years were required to produce the first 10 million tons.

Growth of Inland, from its beginning in 1893 as a rail re-rolling operation at Chicago Heights to its present position as the seventh largest producer of steel in the United States, is illustrated by production and financial comparisons.

During World War I (the years 1917 and 1918), Inland produced 2,165,000 net tons at Indiana Harbor. During World War II (from Dec. 7, 1941, through Aug. 14, 1945) Inland produced 13,209,000 tons.

In 1902 the rated capacity was 60,000 net tons of ingots a year, while today the rated capacity is

Four Seek Two Posts As University Regents

Lansing, (AP)—Two attorneys, an educator and an industrialist face each other Monday as candidates for the regents of the University of Michigan in a dull, off-year election.

The electorate also will choose three justices of the State Supreme Court, a state superintendent of public instruction, two members of the State Board of Agriculture which governs Michigan State College and a member of the State Board of Education which administers the teacher-training colleges.

Here are thumbnail sketches of candidates for the Board of Regents:

The Republican convention renominated J. Joseph Herbert, Manistique attorney, for his second term as a member of the Board of Regents. A native of Indianapolis, he was educated in the Detroit public schools and the University of Michigan. He served 25 months with the army in the first World War, part of the time overseas. Herbert has been state commander of the American Legion, president of the Upper Peninsula district of the University Alumni Association and formerly was a member of the Republican State Central committee.

Inland today, on the basis of the rated capacity of its blast furnaces, is the third largest producer of pig iron in the Chicago area.

Kenneth M. Stevens, Detroit attorney, is the second Republican nominee for the Board of Regents. He was born in Nebraska, and educated in Detroit Central high school, Colgate University, the University of Michigan law school and the University of Paris. He served overseas in the first World War and has been prominent in Wayne County American Legion activities. He was chairman of the Mackinac Island State Park commission and member of the State Board of aviation.

The Democrats have nominated for the board a faculty member at the University and an industrialist.

The former, John L. Brumm, of Ann Arbor, established the University's Department of Journalism and has served in it continuously for 41 years. He retires this year. A native of Flint, Brumm was educated at the University. He organized the University Press Club in 1918 and the Michigan Intercollegiate Press Association.

The other Democratic nominee for the Regents' board is George D. Schermerhorn, president of the Acme Chair company of Reading, Pa. Educated at Purdue University and Oberlin College, Schermerhorn was a member of the Board of Trustees of Hillsdale College for 23 years, is a past commander of the American Legion, Secretary of the Mackinac Island State Park Commission and chairman of the Governor's conference at Mackinac Island in 1935.

Upper Peninsula Boy Scout Camps To Open June 15

Boy Scout camps of the Upper Peninsula Hiawathaland council will operate from June 15 to August 2 this year. Harry B. Siemer, district executive, announced today.

The schedule for the four camps follows: Red Buck, near Wetmore—four weeks, beginning July 6. Batawagama, in Iron county—two weeks, June 15-28. Minneyata, near Ishpeming—two weeks, July 6-19. Two Hearted (formerly Luchimae), at Newberry—two weeks, July 20 to August 2. At the executive meeting in Niagara, Wis., it was decided that all campers will receive emblems this year, with space provided to attach "honor" citations won in camp. The camping and activities committee, headed by Perry Hatch, Marquette, voted to dispense with the "T" shirt as a prize for early registration. The shirts may be purchased from camp stores, however. Red Buck will operate with its own staff for four weeks because of large registration. The other three camps will operate consecutively under the same staff, the staff moving from camp to camp. The camping committee predicts a record-breaking registration this year.

The corn crop in Iowa, the greatest American crop state, averaged more than 50 bushels to the acre in the years 1943, 1944, and 1945.

Gould City

Gould City, Mich.—Mrs. Mike Cassidy is visiting her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Amos McCallum at Rexton.

Lambert Hewitt who has been employed at the Blanchard store has resigned and Mrs. Charles McNeil is now working there.

Mrs. Holt who has been confined in bed with pneumonia is now much better.

Mrs. Grace Engel and son Kenneth who has been in California this past winter visiting relatives, returned home Thursday. They stopped enroute home at Chicago to visit other relatives.

Int'l Harvester Dealers To Meet

About thirty-five persons are expected to attend the meeting of International Harvester company dealers of the eastern half of the Upper Peninsula at the Delta hotel 10 o'clock Tuesday noon, April 8.

New products of the company will be displayed, and talks will be given by officials of the company.

Local Painter Follows His Ancestors In Art

BY ROSE LACHAPPELLE
American art is too often remote from its true form according to the interpretation of Emil Peterson, 1906 First Ave. So. In roaming through art galleries in Minneapolis, Detroit and Chicago, he has found cubism, abstract painting and surrealism lacking in expression. A Salvador Dali, Thomas Hart Benton or Grant Wood may inspire us but Mr. Peterson likes the type which he paints, wherein humans and their emotions are expressed on the canvas.

Even before his arrival in the United States 53 years ago, Mr.
Peterson had been working in oils and water-colors and had tried a charcoal or two. From the age of 11 to 19 he attended a school of painting in Copenhagen, Denmark, his native land.

Was Interior Decorator Making a living is always of prime concern and upon his arrival Mr. Peterson worked as interior decorator and painted houses. In his spare time, which was in the winter, he would paint.
Often pictures he saw in books would present subject matter interesting to the Danish painter and he would do his own version.

To date, one of the oldest he has portrays the joy of a Danish couple upon receiving a letter from friends in America. The work was done in the winter and required much time. Looking back Mr. Peterson stated, "That was when I missed many meals."

According to his wife, who immigrated to America from Sweden
Mr. Peterson and his friend Charles Michelson sat on the stairway one day and painted the "Letter from U. S." without a word passing between them or anyone else all the while.

The painting done by Mr. Michelson still hangs in the Peterson home, though he died many years ago.
In subject matter Peterson's paintings vary considerably. His chief interest is working with people and he has many interesting portraits and scenes of human life. He has done several landscapes, still-lives and a few water colors, particularly of the sea.
Oils, however, are his preferred media.

A prize in his collection represents years of expression in a replica of "Gothic" by Grant

Mr. Peterson comes from a family of painters. His grandfather and uncle both worked extensively

SELF-PORTRAIT BY EMIL PETERSEN, 1906 First avenue south, represents years of experience in painting with oils.

many years ago his uncle was sent by the government of his country to record battle scenes. This was before the inception of modern photography and work by men such as this one often was the only way people could visualize events and record them for posterity.

A church in Milan, Italy, still standing, was decorated in the interior by these forefathers of Mr.
Peterson. The figures were done by his uncle and the painting and landscaping by the grandfather.

Rembrandt and his sixteenth century works of art can not be outscored for Mr. Peterson.

Mr. Peterson married Miss Johanna Magnusson in 1890 and they have four children, George, Lillian, William Scott and Mrs.
Leonard Stade of this city. He has several grandchildren, all of whom he has sketched.

Some 60 oils and watercolors are still to be seen, but much of the work done by this immigrant, who demonstrated what other cultures can contribute to American art, have been given to various friends who often decide which they wish at the State Fair exhibition.

Mr. Peterson has a brother in Denmark who is painting and often the postman brings a work of art from him to his American brother. They have been exchanging and appraising each others work for years.

Though his studio is a room in the basement and his tools simple, this man can feel and express in color. That is the truth of all art, is it not?

Louis Wurth, 81, a resident of Escanaba since 1889, died at 3:30 o'clock Saturday morning at his home, 1212 Second avenue north.
He had been ill for the past year.

Mr. Wurth was born in Luxemburg, September 5, 1865, and came to Escanaba directly from his mother country. He first worked on the Chicago & North Western ore docks, later was proprietor of the old brewery tavern, and was last employed as a car repairer for the Chicago &
North Western. He retired in 1933.

He was a member of the Lux-emburger Bruder Bund, the Brotherhood of Railway Car Men of America and the Equitable Reserve association.

Surviving are three sons, Frank,
Nicholas and Michael, of Escanaba; three grandchildren; one brother, Henry, also of Escanaba; and several nieces and nephews in France and Luxemburg. His wife died February 23, 1938.

The body will be in state at the Allo funeral home Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Funeral services will be held at St. Joseph's church Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, with Rev. Fr. Alphonse O.F.M., officiating, and burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery.

THE TRUTH

I am making the following affidavit so that the public will know the full truth. My husband, Lionel Nault, was killed in the Battle of the Bulge on March 19, 1945. I know that he thought very highly of Mr. Derham as a comrade and friend. I urge all of his comrades to support Mr. Derham for circuit judge. I know that Lionel would do that if he were able.

STATE OF MICHIGAN } ss.
County of DICKINSON }

Theresa Carolla Nault, being first duly sworn, de-poses and says:

That she is the daughter of John and Judith Carolla; that in October, 1936, she, her mother and father were served with subpoenas to appear before the federal grand jury in Marquette, Michigan; that her father was seriously ill at the time; that he died about four weeks later.

That she went to the office of Attorney Ray Derham and told him about her father's illness; that Mr.
Derham advised deponent that she and her mother should obey the subpoenas and should inform the court of her father's illness; that deponent did appear.

Deponent further states that she advised said attorney that her brother, John Carolla, a resident of Spread Eagle, Wisconsin, had been served with a subpoena by the same being left under the door at his place of business by Michigan officers; that Mr. Derham advised deponent that if service was made in that manner that it was no good; that Mr. Derham charged deponent nothing for said advice.

Deponent further states that her brother was arrested for failure to obey said subpoena; that Mr. Derham appeared as a witness and stated the truth about his interview with deponent; that the judge became angry with Mr. Derham because he had not telephoned to the officers about the subpoena.

Theresa Carolla Nault.

HOLDOUT JAPS WON'T GIVE UP

Petelieu Forces Alerted For Banzai Attack By 32 Nipponese

BY MARINE MASTER SGT. MIKE DOWD (of Pittsburgh Pa.)

Petelieu, (P)—Marine and Navy personnel have been alerted against a possible Banzai charge by 32 Japanese holdouts hiding in the caves of Bloody Nose Ridge on this Pacific Island.

A Japanese Naval enlisted man who surrendered this week informed Capt. L. O. Fox, Island commander, that the fanatical little band, which has hidden in the hills for more than two years, was discussing such an attack.

Captain Fox immediately ordered Navy families living in the base 20 area, a half-mile north of the airstrip, to move into a sub-base area east of the airstrip, where they will have the protection of heavily-armed Marine guards.

Thirty-two families now are in this protected area, where the commanding officer is confident they will be safe from even the most determined Japanese charge.

Seven machine guns have been set up on the roofs of buildings around the airstrip.

All patrols have been doubled and equipped with flares to give warning in case they are attacked. Sentries are on 24-hour duty and automatic weapons and flame throwers have been issued.

In the event of an attack, Captain Fox said all island personnel would be supplied with weapons from the Marine arsenal to form a second line of defense.

The Japanese who warned of the possible attack was Superior Seaman Tsuchida, who escaped from the band and surrendered to a Marine road patrol.

He said the group was being held together despite some dissent by a ruthless army second lieutenant named Yamaguchi, and that altogether there were 21 army men, seven navy men and four Japanese from Okinawa.

Tsuchida said that, refusing to believe the war was over, the band was discussing "a last battle to the death."

While preparing his defenses, Captain Fox intensified his efforts to avert a fight by using an intermediary Michio Sumikawa former admiral commanding the Caroline Islands. Sumikawa already has vainly appealed over a loudspeaker for the men to surrender.

595 Million Feet Of Lumber, Ties Cut In Michigan

Five hundred ninety five million board feet of lumber and ties were cut from Michigan forests during 1946. This represents nearly one-half of the total output of the Lake States and 34 per cent greater cut than the ten-year average 1936-1945 of 445 million board feet. More than 1,100 sawmills participated in this production.

These figures are based on preliminary estimates released by the Lake States Forest Experiment Station made for the War Production Board and Civilian Production Administration with assistance from the Northern Hemlock and Hardwood Manufacturers Association.

Strong markets and an adequate labor supply were largely responsible for stimulating the 1946 volume.

Approximately 74 per cent of the state total, or 442 million board feet, was produced on the Upper Peninsula.

Maple ranked first in volume cut, with 205 million board feet; hemlock second, with 123 million board feet, and birch third, with 61 million board feet.

One of the best ski runs in the United States is found in Surveyor park, near Pinedale, Wyo.

Radio In Review

By John Crosby

The Casebook of Mary Sullivan

Not so long ago, New York City cops used to look forward to the day when they could retire and take it easy. Now they go on the radio. So far as I know, that hard-boiled cop, the late Police Commissioner Lewis J. Valentine, started all this. No racketeer could ever get to Valentine, but an ad man finally did and pretty soon he was on "Gangbusters" telling small fry from coast to coast of the dangers of juvenile delinquency.

Since Valentine's demise my favorite ex-cop is Mary Sullivan, who retired in 1946 after thirty-five years on the New York police force. She was quite a girl, all right. She was the only woman ever to have been a member of the Homicide Bureau (1914 to 1926) and wound up as director of the Policewomen's Bureau of the department. In 1938, she wrote a book called "My Double Life" in which she scoffed at those intuitive flashes of genius which usually solve mystery stories. Most detective work, she said, is sheer drudgery and most cases are broken by the accumulated findings of dozens of nameless men and women.

This heretical doctrine is not allowed to intrude to great extent on "Policewoman" (ABC 9:45 p. m. EST Sundays) which is supposed to be a dramatization of Miss Sullivan's extraordinary adventures on the police force. Miss Sullivan, who is played by Betty Garde, is portrayed as a sort of female Sam Spade, tough, cynical, worldly-wise, and she has more intuitive flashes of genius in her fifteen-minute program than Sherlock Holmes had in a year.

Recently, for instance, she was working on the case of the rich beggar. All these adventures, incidentally, have picturesque names. "The Case of the Nine Pound Roast," "The Case of the Vicious Lover." Anyway, Miss Sullivan was doing a little drudgery in the beggar's room when an idea struck.

"Isn't there something odd about this room, sergeant?" she murmured.

"I see what you mean, lieutenant," said the awe-struck sergeant. "Call in Mrs. Blake. This case is about to close."

Well, sir, it developed that it was the decoration that struck Miss Sullivan's eye. The bed was Louis XVI, the rest of the room early American. Naturally, that suggested dirty work. Not even a beggar mixes up his period furniture that way. Good police work may be distinguished by the combined efforts of dozens of nameless men and women but it doesn't work out that way in radio. Miss Sullivan does most of her own drudgery on this program and she catches a different criminal every week. Brother, the adventures that girl had in only thirty-five years!

Speaking of crime, the gang-busters of the Federal Communications Commission have just broken up an illegal broadcasting network operated by five teen-age boys around Summit, N. J. The kids were transmitting jazz and wisecracks over five transmitters constructed from surplus Army equipment over what they referred to as "the friendly frequency." Unfortunately "the friendly frequency" was jamming bands used by airports and ships. The boys got a bawling out from the United States attorney and were turned over to their parents for any action they considered necessary.

Any man's Darling-every man's Pride

Who says you're only young once? Take a look at this trim, new Buick — or better, take its wheel — and see just how wrong that old saw is!

One look at these sleek lines, the long, taste-of-tomorrow fenders — and just watch yourself start getting young ideas.

Find an open road, gun this beauty just a bit — and see how the spirit of springtime wells up in your soul and sets the red blood coursing.

Good road or bad, on these soft all-coil springs you take everything with youthful zip and zest, quite freed from jar or jolt.

City street or country road, with all this poised and husky roadweight beneath you, you travel your level course, steady and non-swerving even on curves.

Pull up somewhere — and see how people turn to note the Very Important Person who's arriving.

Take it through the tangle of traffic and see how nimbly it maneuvers — check it at a boulevard stop and see how sure and positive its controls are.

In all truth, here's a car that's any man's darling, every man's pride. A car that not only meets your needs for transportation, but satisfies your every hankering for size and power, style and room, solid worth and top-dollar value.

Naturally, it's a much wanted car. America's most wanted automobile.

Musicians On Tour

Miss Helen Snyder, dean of women at Northland college, Ashland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Emery Snyder, of Escanaba, who has been visiting her parents here, will leave Monday for Chicago, from where she will accompany the Northland college choir for a month's tour of New England.

The mixed choir of 60 voices will give its first concert at Akron, Ohio and then will proceed to New York City for a concert there and a broadcast over the Mutual network April 10 at 3:45 p. m. E.S.T. Concerts also are scheduled in Boston, Philadelphia, Washington, Jamestown, Pa., and numerous other cities of the east. The final concert of the tour will be given at Green Bay.

Mrs. Kathryn Ragsdale is director of the choir.

Feed grains to be planted in the spring of 1947 will be fed in the fall of 1947 and through most of 1948.

Approximately 90 per cent of all the beef, veal, lamb, and mutton sold during the war years was federally graded.

Leaders of Girl Scout Council to Attend Meeting

Mrs. J. V. Martin, president of the local Girl Scout council, Mrs. John Fawcett, volunteer Girl Scout trainer and member of the national Girl Scout plan of work committee, and Mrs. Otto Hult of Gladstone, volunteer trainer, will attend the regional Girl Scout meeting April 10 and 11 in Chicago. Representatives of 291 councils in the Great Lakes region will be in attendance at this spring meeting.

Mrs. Fawcett will present a report of her committee at the leaders' conference Thursday morning, the first day of the meeting.

Mrs. C. Vaughn Ferguson, the national president of Girl Scouts will give the committee report of her recent tour of the west coast. Miss Ruth Schroeder, assistant to the executive director of the national field division, will meet with metropolitan cities in the region to discuss "Challenging Opportunities for Metropolitan Cities."

A "State of the Region" report for spring, 1947 will be made by Miss Florence Otto, Great Lakes regional director. Other topics of importance to those in attendance will be the presentation and discussion of matters to come up at the national convention to be held at Long Beach, California this coming November; discussion of plans for a leaders' conference for Girl Scout leaders in the Great Lakes region; and sectional discussions for those interested in establishing or enlarging day camps for their local committees.

Luncheon Meeting

At a luncheon meeting on Friday, Miss Alpenfels, staff anthropologist for the Bureau of Intellectual Education, will speak on "Sense and Nonsense About Race." Mrs. Howard K. Jackson of Chicago, vice-chairman of the regional committee will be the presiding officer.

The first recorded school lunch program was started in Munich, Germany, in 1790, when municipal soup kitchens established for the unemployed also served needy school children.

St. Joseph Club
Meets Wednesday

St. Joseph's Home and School association will hold a regular meeting Wednesday evening, April 9, beginning at 8 o'clock, at the school. After a short business meeting there will be a musical program. Albert Shomonto, director of music in the public schools, will play trombone solos and the Glee club will sing several selections, under the direction of Sister M. Sedella. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Eldridge Baker and her committee. Members and their friends are invited.

TOP BURNER BAKING

Top of the range baking requires no special equipment or gadgets. An attractive coffee cake or even some kinds of cookies may be baked successfully in a heavy skillet or in aluminum cake pans. The trick is to put two layers of wax paper on the bottom of the pan before putting in the batter and to cover the pan while baking goes on. The wax paper serves as a sort of insulation to keep the batter from burning on the bottom and the cover makes a miniature "oven" of the baking pan by keeping in the heat.

Mothers...

YOU CAN JOIN WITH US in feeding the hungry children of Europe.

H. J. Heinz Company is giving outright to these children one million packages of Baby Food. In addition, we stand ready to give one package of Baby Food for every package of Heinz Baby Food bought by mothers throughout the United States this week, from April 7 through April 12.

This much needed food will be distributed in Europe by the American Friends Service Committee, a Quaker relief organization. The Committee will allot the Baby Food to the neediest children regardless of nationality, race or religion.

THE NUMBER OF PACKAGES WE SEND IS UP TO YOU.

H. J. Heinz
President, H. J. Heinz Company

"The gift of the Heinz Company means life and hope for human beings otherwise doomed. It also means that the warm heart of America still beats true. Now millions of Americans can have a direct share in giving food to hungry children. Other companies may find ways of taking similar action through the relief agencies of their choice, opening wide the floodgates of American generosity. It is as certain as the stars in their courses that there can be no peace where children are starving."

CROWDS PRAY IN HOLY LAND

Dawn Heralds Day Of Worship At Shrines
Of Jerusalem

BY CARTER L. DAVIDSON

Jerusalem, April 5 (AP)—Ancient bells will toll the dawn in their small, strife-racked land tomorrow to herald the anniversary of the resurrection from the dead of the Prince of Peace.

When the first rosy light breaks over the wooded Mount of Olives—the Mount of Olives of Christ's ascension into Heaven—worshippers will begin a day of solemn reverence in the sacred places and at the traditional hours recorded in the New Testament story of the Christian miracle.

At the north edge of this holy city, overlooking the Garden of Gethsemane, about 10,000 Moslems will pray at their haram Esh Sharif Mosque, and then set out on the long journey into the desert near Jericho, at the Moslem Shrine of Nebi Musa.

The Jews will continue their observance of Passover. Their shoulders covered with prayer shawls, they will walk again to the wailing wall—a great barrier built from stones of Hebrew temples long ago destroyed—and located just outside the Moslem Mosque area.

Worshippers of the Catholic and Protestant faiths also will hold services in various churches throughout the old and new city.

Thousands of uniformed British soldiers, their rifles and tommy-guns always with them, will be among the worshippers. The soldiers, symbols of the never-ending conflict in the Holy Land, will continue their vigil even on this holiest of days against the possibility of new violence.

PITS UNSAFE, IS CHARGE OF JOHN L. LEWIS

the government earlier today to order the indefinite closing of all but two of the 2,531 bituminous mines it operates.

He said he made the request in behalf of the miners "whose lives are endangered" by working conditions. It raised the question how many of the miners will go back to work Monday.

Lewis' sudden maneuver came less than 48 hours before the miners are supposed to go back to work after a six-day mourning period for the 111 dead in the Centralia, Ill., mine explosion.

Sam Caddy, president of UMW District 30, said at Lexington, Ky., that members of the union will not work next week at any mine in the country which is shown by the last federal inspection to be unsafe.

Krug already had ordered the closing of 518 mines as unsafe.

Lewis made his request in a letter to Navy captain Collison, who is coal mines administrator under Krug's supervision.

He said "I officially request" that all but two of the mines be kept closed until federal inspectors found them to conform with the federal mine safety laws.

Lewis excepted these two—both

Woman Hit By Car Now In Hospital; Driver Pays Fine

Wilfred J. Clements, 26, of Wilson, pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving in Justice Ranguette's court yesterday and was fined $25 and costs.

Clements was arraigned by the city police after his car had struck a pedestrian, Mrs. Anna Miller, of 713 Fourth avenue north, at the corner of Ludington and Eleventh street, at 8:30 Friday night.

Driving north on Eleventh, Clements made his stop at the Ludington arterial sign and then made a left turn into Ludington, striking Mrs. Miller who was crossing Ludington from south to north.

His rain-blurred window obscured his vision, Clements said, and prevented him from seeing Mrs. Miller, who was shielding herself from the rain with an umbrella, until his lights were full upon her, only a moment before striking.

Police said, however, that they had found, upon an investigation after the accident, that the car's windshield wipers were out of order.

Clements stopped immediately, and took Mrs. Miller to the hospital where she was found to be suffering an injured chest and bruises about the legs. Her condition last night was reported as fair.

Briefly Told

Knitting Classes—The Monday and Wednesday adult education knitting classes have been combined, and will meet on Wednesday evenings in the Junior high school library.

Odd Fellows—A regular meeting of Impellant Lodge No. 460 will be held Monday, April 7, at the Odd Fellows' Hall. All members having parts in the third degree are asked to be present. Degree practice will be held following the meeting.

Thirty Days—Yesterday in Justice Ranguette's court, Michael Sullivan, 215 North Ninth street, was given thirty days in the county jail when he pleaded guilty to the theft of coal from the Coleman Nee Coal company.

Communication

Criticizes Derham's "Ad"

Editor, Mining Journal:
Marquette, Mich.

In your paper dated March 29, 1947, Ray Derham, candidate for circuit judge, quotes in his advertising from a commission that was granted to him in the Judge Advocate General's department on March 11, 1947. From his advertising he makes it appear that President Truman himself selected Mr. Derham on account of his personal knowledge of Mr. Derham's qualifications. In the same issue of your paper other advertising implies that two Presidents and four governors personally selected Mr. Derham.

The language used in appointing
Mr. Derham a lieutenant-colonel in the Judge Advocate General's department is the same language that is used in all commissions that are granted to every officer in the Army of the United States. At the present time there are nearly half a million reserve officers in United States holding similar commissions and having certificates using exactly the language quoted by Mr.
Derham. These certificates of commission are issued by the War Department to each officer who has completed a required period of time in his former grade and do not indicate personal knowledge by the President of each individual or his qualifications. Furthermore these Army of the United States commissions are tendered to each officer upon his separation from active duty to a reserve status.

I believe this kind of advertising is misleading, particularly to the person who does not understand how an officer receives his commission in the Army. I should think that any man qualified to be a candidate for Circuit Judge should be disposed to refrain from trying to mislead the public in this manner.

WILLIAM N. KOSKI,
107 W. College Ave.,
Marquette, Michigan

TAX SLASHING IS CONDEMNED BY PRESIDENT

"Any substantial reduction of the 1948 federal budget, as submitted to the congress, must be clearly understood by the American people as a venture into false economy," he continued.

"To the extent that we countenance any such reduction, we shall weaken our own house by our refusal to keep it in basic repair. At best, this is poor judgment. At worst, it is an invitation to disaster."

All Revenue Needed
Standing firm against Republican efforts in Congress to cut income taxes by 20 and 30 per cent
now, the president declared:

"When the people, through their government, owe a lot of money—as we do today—it is the course of wisdom to make payment on our debt. It would be extremely short-sighted to cut down the federal revenue without making a real effort toward debt reduction."

"I recognize, frankly, that the present burden of taxation on our people is too heavy to be considered as permanent, and at a proper time I will support tax reduction and tax readjustment designed to reduce the burden and to adjust that burden to the needs of a peacetime economy."

In apparent reference to his proposal for financial and limited military aid to Greece and Turkey to resist Communism, the president declared that "in supporting the United Nations, we must, when necessary, supplement its activities."

"By aiding free nations to maintain their freedom we strengthen the United Nations in the performance of its functions," he said.

"We must take a positive stand.
It is no longer enough merely to say 'We don't want war.' We must act in time—ahead of time—to stamp out the smoldering beginnings of any conflict that may threaten to spread over the world."

Then he gave this summary of how "the fire" of war starts:

"We have seen it before—aggression by the strong against the weak, openly by the use of armed force and secretly by infiltration.
We know how the fire spreads.
And we know how it ends."

He said it is the responsibility of the United States to stand guard before the United Nations, "the edifice of lasting peace."

The United Nations, he said, must "quench the flames which ever they may break out," even "if armed conflict must be prevented by the use of an international police force."

He commended "the efforts of those members of both parties" who have supported American foreign policy which, he said, transcends in importance "any other question confronting us."

"It would be fatal if it were to become the subject of narrow political consideration," Mr. Truman said. "Our foreign policy must maintain a military power commensurate with its responsibilities and this requires a 'sound domestic economy.'"

He said that the administration cut expenditures to $64,000,000-000 in the 1946 fiscal year, to $42-000,000,000 this fiscal year, and plans to spend $37,500,000,000 for the 1948 year beginning July 1.
This new budget he said, is the borderline, that curtailment of services below it would cost all taxpayers "more than the reduction in costs that appeared on the surface."

Army Cuts Dangerous

He said it would be wasting money to abandon reclamation, soil conservation, forest preservation and development of water resources, as well as to cease vigilance along the borders and at ports of entry.

He also held it "false economy" to reduce the staff that audits tax returns, or settles labor disputes and added:

"If we cut down the effectiveness of our armed forces, we run the risk of wasting both money and lives."

scribed cure for tuberculosis a

Communism Gains Power In Berlin; Democrats Glum

BY RICHARD KASISCHKE

Berlin, April 5 (AP)—Responsible U. S. military government officials said today that Communism was winning a struggle for control of Berlin's city government.

In the four months since it won a city election, Berlin's social democratic government has been made virtually impotent by political maneuvers of the Russians and the Soviet-sponsored Socialist Unity Party (SED), these officials said.

Disheartened Democratic leaders have threatened to resign and ask the Allied kommandantur to appoint a new city government, the informant said, but American officials are urging them to stay on in the hope that the foreign ministers council in Moscow may reach agreements easing Berlin's economic position.

Oshkosh All-Stars Nip Herkimer, 60-54

Chicago, April 5 (AP)—The Oshkosh, Wis., All-Stars of the National Basketball league defeated the Mohawks of Herkimer, N. Y., 60 to 54 tonight in the first of three opening round games of the Invitational Pro Case tournament in Chicago Stadium before a crowd of 10,731 fans.

BELL SUPERS TO TAKE HOT CALLS

Skeleton Crews Will Work Switchboards
During Strike

The Michigan Bell Telephone company, through its Escanaba manager, G. A. Marcouillier, requested the cooperation of all telephone subscribers and users in the event of a strike next Monday.

The strike, Manager Marcouil-lier said, will call out approximately 100 Bell Telephone employees here in Escanaba, and leave only five supervisory employees to handle vitally important emergency calls.

Marcouillier emphasized that only emergency calls—matters of life and death, fire or disaster—will be transmitted. All emergency service will be handled, however.

Priority will be given to hospitals, police and fire departments and similar organizations. Other calls to the switchboard will be answered in groups with the announcement that only emergency calls can be handled. If the call is a genuine emergency, it will be handled if the customer continues to flash his signal.

The plant department will handle only emergency maintenance situations.

Company Prepared
Bell Telephone, Marcouillier said, wishes to comply with both the letter and the spirit of labor law which allows peaceful picketing.

Telephone companies generally expect to make full use of the sleeping facilities furnished for the use of employees in event of emergencies, storms, floods, etc.
Two cots have been set up in the Escanaba office, and a supply of food laid in.

Taxis To Cruise
Three Escanaba taxicab companies, dependent on telephone for their service to the public, announced last night a setup for emergency service in case the telephone strike ties up their calls

Monday. Representatives of the cab companies conferred with City Manager A. V. Aronson and Police Chief Mike Ettenhofer regarding the city ordinance which prohibits cruising by taxicabs. The city officials agreed that enforcement of the ordinance would be suspended for the period of the tieup, and cabs would be allowed to cruise without being molested.
The operators agreed, however, that no pickups would be made at bus stops.

Advance calls will be accepted today by the three cab companies for meeting trains and other essential service for Monday and later, in case the tieup continues.
Householders desiring cabs are asked to turn on their porch lights and cruising drivers will stop for pickups.

VOTERS GO TO POLLS MONDAY

Judgeship Race Draws Interest; 4 Seek Commish Posts

The biennial spring election and city election will be held Monday. Attention centers mainly on the non-partisan contest between Attorney Glenn W. Jackson, city, and Attorney Ray Derham, Iron Mountain, for the office of judge of the 25th judicial district.

VOTE EARLY

City Manager H. J. Henrikson yesterday issued an appeal to local voters to cast their ballots as early as possible to avoid congestion during the last hour.

In the city commission race to fill the expired terms of Commissioners Henry Cassidy and Fred Schram, are Cassidy, a candidate for reelection, George Mathison, Mason Meyer and Frank Quinn.

Side Glances

"Just tell your mother we aren't buying concert tickets this year—since Junior started taking lessons on the flute, that's all the music we need!"

Many Women Attend Rally For Jackson

The Jackson for Judge rally held yesterday afternoon at the Legion hall was well attended. Probate Judge William Miller served as chairman and speakers were Attorney Alger W. Strom, Gladstone and Escanaba, Delta County Prosecutor Clyde McGonagle, city, and Attorney Glenn W. Jackson.

Ladies of the Legion Auxiliary headed by Mrs. Louis Hillewaert and Mrs. F. S. Patton, so-called, served luncheon. Arrangements were made by the Mesdames Seymour Lewis, Nettie Kee, R. I. Simpson, E. A. D'Amour, Otto S. Hult, Carl Johnson, Fritz Esler, H. J. Henrikson, G. W. Jackson, F. S. Patton, Ray Gazlay, Charles Coon and Mrs. John Norton, Jr., and members of the Child's Welfare Club.

The average wage rate paid to hired U. S. farm workers in 1946 was $91.40 per month compared with $84 during a comparable period in 1945.

Mother Receives
Easter Phone Call
From Germany

Easter came a bit earlier to the home of Mrs. Emily Welch than it did to most Manistique residents this year. It has been Easter from 1 p. m. Thursday for Mrs. Welch, because at that time she received a long distance call from Frankfurt, Germany, and for six minutes talked with her boy, Sgt. Albert L. J. Welch, who is with the army of occupation there.

Her son's voice was clear, except for two brief moments when the sound seemed to fade away, and she could tell he was very happy, although he admitted he was—no fooling—pretty homesick. He said he liked his assignment at Frankfurt and regretted his coming transfer next week to Vienna.

Sergeant Welch tried to telephone to his mother last Christmas and New Year, but the demand for calls at that time was so great that he could not be accommodated. He took the precaution of putting in his application for a call for Easter several weeks in advance.

To add to Mrs. Welch's happiness she was notified earlier in the day that she would receive a call from her son in Germany so she was prepared in advance for what might otherwise have been a shock.

Sergeant Welch, an alumnus of Manistique high school, told his mother to give Easter greetings to all his friends and classmates. She has asked the Daily Press to convey these greetings for her.

Obituary

DR. A. R. TUCKER

Funeral services will be conducted at 9 Monday morning at St. Francis de Sales Catholic church for Dr. Albert R. Tucker. The Rev. Fr. B. J. P. Schevers will conduct the funeral mass, and interment will be in Fairview cemetery.

The Manistique Post of the American Legion, assisted by VFW and DAV members, will provide military honors at the graveside.

ASSISTED VETERANS—In three evening sessions at the commercial room at Manistique High school more than 600 veterans were assisted in making out applications for the state soldiers bonus. This big assignment was taken over by volunteer typists and notary publics. Although there are still hundreds of veterans in the county who have not applied, for this extra pay, no more night sessions will be held. Leonard Mulhaupt, veteran counselor, is shown standing in the left foreground directing the work.

Time to Think Of Spring Cleaning

Said the smart kid to the colored gentleman who was burning grass: "You are making the ground as black as you are." And the colored man replied, "Yes, and soon it will be as green as you are." The joke is old but the inference is timely. It's time to start spring cleaning. And remember, even if your garments are black, we can make them green, red, yellow or whatever their original tint or color happened to be and they'll be just as fresh and clean as the new grass that is beginning to show.

Clement Laurion Sole Owner Of City Bus Line

Announcement is made by the Manistique Transit Company that Gilbert Laurion, who has been operating the bus line in partnership with his brother, Clement, since the line was started nine months ago, has severed his connection with the company and is leaving this week for San Francisco, Calif.

Gilbert will be employed by the pan-American Airways at San Francisco as an aviation mechanic. Three and one-half years army service in such a capacity has fitted him for this work.

Clement will continue to operate the bus line and the taxi service in Manistique.

Russian Easter Cantata To Be Presented Soon

The Manistique Choral club will hold its regular rehearsal at 7:30 Monday evening on the stage of the high school auditorium.

Because of the limited number of rehearsals, all members are urged to be present. However, persons who have been reluctant to join at this late hour are extended an invitation to join by Mrs. James Fyvie, the director.

The concert will feature the Easter cantata, "The Garden and the Sepulchre" by Daniel Protheroe.

CITY ELECTION BOARD PICKED

Clerk Names Personnel For Three Munising Precincts

Munising—Acting Munising city clerk, Rydt Potter, yesterday announced the appointment by the city election commission of the following officials for the biennial spring election Monday:

First Precinct (city firehall)—Chairman, Eugene Cotey; Inspectors, Ruth Passinaut, Evelyn Hemmingway, Joseph Lambert.

Clerks, Anna Shirey, Pershing Nadeau; Gate, Emil Flink, Joseph Miller.

Second Precinct (Lincoln school)—Chairman, Louis J. Rowe; Inspectors, Lenore Berube, Clara Gollinger, Beatrice Corvieu.

Clerks, Argene Pelletier, S. J. LaCombe; Gate, Charles Lunstad; Neil Morrison.

Clerks, Greta Trombly, Sarah Whitmore; Gate, Lena Waskoski.

Rydt Potter To Act As City Clerk During Election

Munising—Rydt Potter has been named by the city commission of records and finance, Harry Nelson, to fill the vacancy of city clerk temporarily until a new city clerk is named.

The Commissioner requested the services of Mr. Potter to act as city clerk because of his previous experience in that position. Mr. Potter had been employed as clerk for 10 years, 1928-1938, under Mayors T. G. Sullivan, C. G. Kemp and Fred Baldwin. A man of experience in the work of city clerk was necessary at this time, Mr. Nelson said, to handle the details of the election Monday.

The vacancy in the position of city clerk resulted when William Dore resigned recently to devote his time to private business. Mr. Potter took over the clerk's duties Saturday.

Local Men Purchase Dance Hall On M-28

Munising—William "Bill" Dore, former city clerk, and Frank Doucette, yesterday announced they have purchased the Beaver Park Gardens, a tavern and dance hall located west of Munising on highway 28.

The men purchased the establishment from Frank Carr who has owned and operated it for the past two years. The dance hall was formally opened under the new partnership Saturday evening.

MUNES CAN BE MADE SAFER

Manpower And Stricter Enforcement Of Codes Needed

By A. C. MONAHAN
Science Service Staff Writer

Washington—The nation's coal mines can be made safer, but it is a job which will need men, money and stricter enforcement of mining safety codes.

Safety in coal mining means primarily good ventilation, the prevention of mine roofs from falling, dust-laying, and the use of proper explosives, handled only by experts, in the necessary blasting to loosen the coal from its seams. There are other necessary steps, but these are the most important.

Falling roofs in coal mines cause more fatalities each year than any other type of accidents. They are prevented, or at least lessened, by what is known as timbering or shoring. This means the placement of supporting columns in newly excavated cavities as rapidly as the cavities are made. It is an expensive job, requiring much skill, labor and time. Constant inspection must be made to see if additional timbering is needed. Even with the best of shoring some roof falls are apt to occur. Men are sometimes injured also by debris loosened from the walls or faces on which the miners are working.

Explosions rank second as causes of mine fatalities. They may be of gas or of very fine coal dust. Ventilation is the method by which the explosive gases are removed, and ventilation also removes much of the coal dust that is suspended in the air. Powerful forced ventilation is required. Under the government mining safety code, giant blowers are stationed outside the mines to force fresh air down special conduits into the mine and to each group of miners. Separate conduits remove the foul air, together with any gases that have collected and with the suspended coal dust.

Settled dust, on the walls and roofs of coal mines, is often worse in an explosion than the minor amount of suspended dust in a properly ventilated mine. The shock waves that result from what might be a minor explosion drives this settled dust into the air where it in turn adds to the explosion.

Rock dusting is the best known preventive. Rock dust is a non-combustible, specially treated pulverized limestone that is applied to the walls and roofs close behind where miners are working. It prevents the accumulation of dust on the surfaces. While limestone dust alone is sometimes used, a more modern practice is the use of a limestone dust that has been so treated that every tiny particle of it is coated with a water-resistant material. Such dust is sometimes scattered by automatic devices in the air ahead of an approaching explosion, in which case it is often effective in halting progress of the explosion.

The present federal mine safety code for bituminous coal mines, which most states now recognize, was prepared by the U. S. Bureau of Mines, representatives of the coal industry and the United Mine Workers of America headed by John Lewis. It was approved by the Secretary of the Interior on July 24, 1946. It is a code to guide mine operators; its enforcement ordinarily rests with state and local authorities.

While the coal mines are under federal administration, the heart of this administration probably has the necessary authority to enforce compliance with the code, but does not have the necessary staff. The functions of the Bureau of Mines covers inspection and the reporting of code violations only, and it needs a staff of 250 men, compared with 167 last year and additional inspectors called for in appropriations for the fiscal years 1946 and 1947. The job of this staff: inspecting the 7,000 regularly producing coal mines in the United States.

Average wages paid on U. S. railroads increased from about $17 a week in 1916 to almost $60 a week in 1946.

Communsits Won't Take Over U. S. A., President Declares

Washington, D. C. (AP)—President Truman declared Thursday that he is opposed to Communists holding government jobs but he is not worried about the Communist Party taking over the U. S. government.

The President expressed his views at a news conference when questioned about a letter he wrote to former Governor George Earle of Pennsylvania.

Asked if he had made reference to the Communist "Bugaboo" in the letter to Earle and for an explanation of his attitude the President emphasized two points:

1. He is not worried about any likelihood of the Communist Party taking over in the U. S.

2. He is concerned, however, that Communists do not take over jobs in the government of the United States.

VOTE SEEKERS SET PLATFORMS

Nelson And Dougherty Tell Voters Of Plans

Munising—The two rival candidates for city commissioner of records and finance recently announced their "platforms" to present their ideas to voters who will go to the polls tomorrow.

To keep Munising moving and to help solve local problems, George Dougherty, candidate for the office, said he will, if elected, strive to inaugurate the following:

1. Provide a city recreation and youth guidance program.
2. Construct an enclosed skating rink, with facilities for other sports and meetings.
3. A program of street building and repair.
4. Reduce some current expenditures to provide funds to meet these undertakings, and to "live within the city budget."

Harry C. Nelson, seeking reelection, gave a seven-point program of "planned projects and those accomplished." He listed the following:

1. Pushing work on a sewage system for East Munising. This will be done as soon as materials are available.
2. Construction of a new fire hall, city dock and city park while he has held office indicate his "intentions to work toward a progressive city."
3. The city is now planning the replacing of much sidewalk, and has a street improvement program outlined.
4. Consideration is being given a year-round recreation project which would include a youth center, properly supervised.
5. The city has approved the installation of a stop-light at the junction of Elm avenue and Superior street, and is planning to extend the present street and alley lighting system when materials are available.
6. Washington street, in East Munising, was surfaced last summer.
7. The city will lay out a street and extend water mains into the projected Bodette Addition this spring.

WILLIAM CURRAN

Munising—Funeral services were held at 2 Saturday afternoon in the Beaulieu funeral home for William Curran, Munising resident, who died in the Newberry State hospital, Friday.

Rev. H. A. Storey of the Free Methodist church, Munising, officiated and interment was made in the Maple Grove cemetery vault.

pallbearers were Thomas Beaudry, Russell Spearman, Francis Lincoln, Verland Benson, Merle Miller and Howard Gatiss.

CONDUCTS MEETINGS HERE

—Rev. Frank Brower, of Lima, Ohio, will conduct a series of evening meetings at the Baptist church in Munising April 8 to 20. He is a brother of Rev. Howard Brower, pastor of Baptist church, Mrs. Frank Brower will accompany her husband here and will present a series of chalk drawings during the meetings.

Voters To Receive Four Ballots At City Polls Monday

Munising—Four ballots will be given to the voters in the city of Munising when they go to the polls Monday, April 7.

One ballot will list the city candidates, one state offices, one will carry two proposed state constitutional amendments, and the fourth will be a non-partisan ballot to elect a circuit judge and supreme court justices.

The line-up of opposing candidates for the various city offices will be as follows:

George Dougherty will oppose Harry C. Nelson, (incumbent) for commissioner of records and finance; Andrew Soukup, Joseph E. Denman, Robert W. Runsal, William C. Duffett, and Vernon Johnson will seek supervisor jobs (three to be elected); for the justice of the peace position, there will be two candidates, Thomas J. Walters and John A. Vizen, both incumbents.

Candidates for township positions will be:

AuTrain—James Hebert and Leo Peters seeking election as supervisors; Harold Wallis and Roy Boneville seeking the job as clerk; Rock River—Neil Ylitalo and William Hapala, candidates for supervisor; and in Onota, Uro Philainen opposes Mrs. Digne Lake (both running on slips).

There is no contest in Burt, Grand Island, Limestone, Mathias or Munising townships.

Precincts in the city of Munising will be: Precinct 1—Fire hall; Precinct 2—Lincoln school and Precinct 3—Washington school. Voters who previously voted at the Labor hall will vote in precinct two now located at the Lincoln school. Polls will be open at 7 a. m. and will close at 8 p. m. CST.

Jimmy Demaret Fires 210 For Three-Stroke Lead In Masters Golf

MIDDLECOFF DROPS BACK

McSpaden, Nelson Tied For Second At 213 At 54-hole Mark

BY CHICK BOSCH

Augusta, Ga., April 5 (P)—Jimmy Demaret, the year's leading money winner, overcame a stiff wind and erratic shots off the tee today to post a two-under par 70 for a three-stroke lead in the $10,000 Masters golf tournament. He had a 54-hole total of 210 to remain at the top of the heap.

The singing ex-Texasan, who captured the 1940 Masters title by four strokes—biggest margin in any of the previous 10 events—had five birdies but was over par on each of three other holes. Tied for second with 213 were the original Gold Dust Twins, Harold McSpaden of Sanford, Me., and Byron Nelson of Roanoke, Texas, who won the event here in 1937 and 1942. McSpaden had a 70 today. Nelson shot a 72, making a marvelous recovery on the back nine after going out in a 39.

Middlecoff Drops Back
Deadlocked with 214 were Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., the runner-up in 1942 and last year, Chick Harbert of Detroit, and Jim Ferrier of Chicago. Harbert and Hogan posted 71's today. Ferrier slipped to 38 on the back nine after going out in 35 to take 73.

A 35 on each nine, one under par in each case, enabled Demaret to shade off Cary Middlecoff, the sensational young Memphis dentist who shared the lead with the Ojai, Calif., pro at the halfway mark.

Middlecoff remained in the running with a brilliant recovery on the back nine after a poor 40, going out. He had a 36 coming in for 76 and a 216 total.

Harmon Fires Ace

Claude Harmon of Mamaroneck, N. Y., had an ace on the 155-yard 12th hole. Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., shot the first nine in 32—lowest for this tournament—to take a 68. That tied the round of Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, who posted a 68 today for a 217 total, the same as Harper.

Bracketed at 215 were Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O., who took the lead among the amateurs in Dick Chapman of Pinehurst, N. C., and Henry Picard of Cleveland. Picard played around in regulation figures today while Stranahan carded a 70, with a 33 on the back nine.

Four players were tied for the 20th spot with 218. They were Harmon, Sammy Sneed of Hot Springs, Va., Horton Smith of Detroit, and Lawson Little of Cleveland, O.

Pauline Betz May Be Suspended By U. S. Lawn Tennis

New York, April 5 (P)—Pauline Betz, American women's singles champion, faces possible suspension when the United States Lawn Tennis association's amateur rules committee meets Monday to investigate charges against her.

Holcombe Ward, president of the USTA, today declined to divulge what charges had been made, but it was believed to be an outgrowth of last Wednesday's announcement by Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Cooke that she and Miss Betz may make a professional net tour.

"She is not suspended as yet," Ward said. "We have asked her for a cable reply to the charges and we expect we will have received it by the time we meet Monday."

"Meanwhile, we have informed Miss Betz that she is not to accept expenses for any more European tournaments until this matter is cleared up."

Miss Betz, from Los Angeles, has dominated American women's tennis the last few years, and last year won the women's singles at Wimbledon. Today she was eliminated in the Monte Carlo Country Club's Easter tourney by Lydia Rurak of Romania, 4-6, 8-6, 6-4.

Bowling Notes

Rapid River Women's League

Red Sox Say New Williams Will Hit .400 This Season

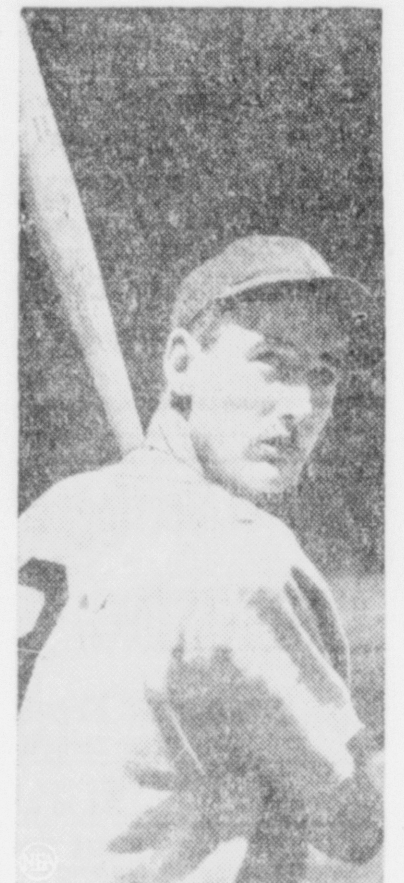

By HARRY GRAYSON

NEA Sports Editor
New York, April 6 (NEA)—The Red Sox say Mickey Vernon of the Senators will have to hit more than .400 to repeat as the American League batting champion.

For that is what they believe Theodore Francis Williams is going to hit, duplicating his 1941 performance, when he became the junior wheel's first .400 hitter in 18 years.

Ted Williams finally has grown up. The Team is a team man for the first time. He has quit fighting himself and the fans. He is running out hits, otherwise paying attention to details that make him a better all-around ballplayer. He previously thought of nothing but hitting.

Williams no longer can be designated as the Splendid Splinter. He has filled out, has tremendous arms. You don't realize how big this six-foot three-inch fellow is until you stand alongside him. Williams apparently made no effort to beat the Boudreau-Dyer shift by hitting to left field the first few days a Sarasota, but when he started to experiment appeared able to slap the sphere in that direction any time he cared to. The kid is positive he will acquire the knack by kick-off time.

As visiting players watch Bob Feller warm up, everything stops and everyone watches intently when Williams goes to bat even in practice. After he hit three to right or smack dab through the middle, the cry from the Florida stands would be "Hit one to left." And The Kid rarely failed to oblige.

Williams contends that ballplayers do not get nearly enough batting practice, and he's dead right. A good golfer makes 150 practice shots before a round, and he is swatting a stationary ball. A ballplayer doesn't get more than three turns in batting practice and is permitted to hit only four balls, for a total of 12 a day. And in a game he is swinging at a rapidly moving and darting ball.

In the old days, clubs practiced batting in the morning. With the night ball of today, they could not do this in the afternoon. But batting practice, other than the pre-game variety, generally was abandoned when the pampered athletes complained about getting up early in the morning.

Joe Medwick, looking somewhat strange in a Yankee uniform, is putting more into his swing with a Hank Leiber model protective cap on his head. A plastic plate band is broken only at the peak. The cap obviously was named after Leiber because the former Giant outfielder was so badly beaten by Feller in a spring exhibition game some years back.

Muscles Medwick was struck on the head by pitched balls several times, hurt worse shortly after he became a Dodger by a ball thrown by Bob Bowman of the Giants.

While at bat every ballplayer should be compelled to wear a Hank Leiber model cap or some similar protection.

TORONTO LEAFS CRUSH DETROIT

Two Canadian Teams To Tangle In Stanley Cup Playoffs

Toronto, April 5 (P)—The Toronto Maple Leafs joined the Montreal Canadiens in the final round of the National Hockey League's Stanley Cup playoffs tonight by crushing the Detroit Red Wings, 6-1, for their fourth victory in five starts in the best-of-seven semi-final round series.

The two Canadian teams will open their best-of-seven series by playing the first game of the series at Montreal next Thursday. Montreal gained the final round by taking four out of five games from the Boston Bruins in the opening session.

Toronto jumped into the lead by scoring twice within six minutes after the halfway mark of the first period while the Wings were short-handed. They added two goals in each of the final two periods to win going away.

A crowd of 13,395 fans roared approval as Nick Metz slapped home Gus Mortson's rebound for Toronto's initial tally less than minutes after the ten minute mark of the opening session.

Joe Klukay then tallied what proved to be the winning marker but the hard-skating Leafs continued to pile it on as Don Metz and Gaye Stewart scored in the second period and Nick Metz rifled in his second counter in the finale, after which Syl Apps roared in and tallied unassisted for the Leafs' final goal.

Fern Gauthier collected Detroit's lone goal late in the opening frame.

Rookie Goalie Red Almas of the Wings was taken from the game after pulling a leg muscle late in the first period. Veteran Netminder Johnny Mowers took Almas' place between the pipes but couldn't stem the Toronto onslaught.

The last time Toronto and Montreal met in Stanley Cup play was in the 1944-45 season and the Leafs trimmed the defending Champion Canadiens, 4-2, and went on to win the cup.

Marines Shut Out By Michigan Nine

Quantico, Va., April 5 (P)—The University of Michigan scored a 5-0 win over the Quantico Marines here today, putting together ten hits, nine walks and nine Marine errors as Dick Schmidtke pitched steady four-hit ball.

A three-run eighth inning rally, of three hits and a walk, put the game on ice for the Wolverines. In spite of wet grounds and a cold wind, both pitchers worked the full game.

Ohio State Swim Team Near Second Straight NAAU Cup

Columbus, O., April 5 (P)—Ohio State's startling swimmers, holding an eight-point edge in the first five events, practically clinched their second straight national AAU championship today as they qualified high-ranking entrants in each of tonight's finals.

Yale, 15 points back of the Bucks with 11 points in five events, was expected to draw up on the champs—but not close enough to make a fight for it. Ohio qualified four of the six in the three meter diving event, taking the first four places.

Walter Ris, defending champion from Iowa City, Ia., who failed to qualify yesterday for the 220-yard free style, went the 100-yard sprint today in :51.6 mark set by Walter Spence of Rutgers in 1934.

Harry Holiday, Michigan, National AAU outdoor, NCAA and Big Nine 150-yard back stroke champ finished second to Yale's Alan Stack in the qualifier as Yale moved Al Ratkiewicz into the third spot.

Miller Anderson, Buck champion, led the diving qualifiers, with only Jack Tolar of the Texas Aquatic club and Gilbert Evans of Michigan able to break through the Ohio talent for qualifying places.

Waterfowl Hunting May Be Curtailed Next Fall

Washington, April 5 (P)—Albert M. Day, director of the Fish and Wildlife service, said today it probably will be necessary to curtail—but not close completely—the waterfowl hunting season next fall.

Day based his estimate on the agency's annual waterfowl inventory which placed the North American population of ducks and geese at 54,000,000. This is 26,000,000 less than in January, 1946.

This is the greatest one-year decline in waterfowl population on record, the agency's first duck-count Day told a reporter. In 1935 an estimate of 27,000,000. The total increased annually to a peak in 1943 of 125,350,000.

Depends On Breeding
"In spite of the fact that waterfowl numbers have fallen almost to the 1939 total, I do not now think it will be necessary to curtail a complete closed season for next fall," Day said.

"I think we will be able to recommend some kind of an open season, but what it will be depends largely upon conditions in

The Sports Parade

BY Jim Ward

Since we introduced you to the subject of the cancelled Minnesota all-star high school game, because of its interest in connection with the Upper Peninsula all-star prep tilt in Negaunee, we will follow through today by reporting that repercussions to action of school superintendents in vetoing the game have been many—and somewhat heated.

To refresh your memory, the school heads tossed the game out despite its widespread approval by players, fans and spectators and in so doing broke a five-year contract that had three years to run.

We are responsible again to George T. Springer, former resident of Gladstone now residing in Minneapolis, for this latest information from the Gopher state. To put it bluntly, John Q. Public (Minnesota variety) just doesn't like the idea of the all-star game being taken away from him.

"We find it difficult to analyze the reasoning of the superintendents who did the voting," writes Charles Johnson of the Minneapolis Star.

"People on all sides pause to ask, 'What happened?' Why did the superintendents vote against continuation of the game?" Dick Cullum writes in the Minneapolis Times.

"Well, the answer is, I don't know any good reason."

"When it was pointed out to the superintendents that this contract existed and that there might be some moral obligation to authorize its completion, one of them said: 'What have we to fear under the contract?' We're not incorporated. They can't hold us."

"It was on that high moral point that the decision was made."

Cullum concludes by saying it is evident the Minnesota superintendents fell into a trap engineered by Fritz Crisler, Michigan football coach, who hoped to gain an advantage over Minnesota by getting the all-star game banned.

The Minneapolis Star writer made one other significant comment: "The state board of control and the delegate assembly had approved this venture for the past two years. During that time we didn't hear a single word of criticism of the manner in which it was conducted."

There will be an important meeting of the Escanaba Baseball association Tuesday evening, April 8, at the city hall council chambers at eight o'clock for the purpose of completing plans for the entry of the Escanaba Bears in the Rainbow league.

The meeting was originally scheduled to be held Monday evening but has been postponed one night because of the conflict with election night Monday.

Officers will be elected for the year and plans for financing the club will be discussed. All baseball players and fans are invited to attend.

Preliminary plans were outlined at a previous meeting held a week ago, at which time the meeting to be held this week was scheduled to complete details.

Day recalled that in the extreme dry year of 1945, when the duck population was only half as large as today, a break in the drought and a season limited to 30 days led to a satisfactory increase. The Government prohibited shooting of certain species that year.

Recommend No Hunting
The Audubon society recently recommended that no duck hunting whatever be allowed next year.

Day said the flood of mail to his office, following the society's report, "surprisingly enough balanced out pretty well—a lot of sportsmen are worried and agreed that strict conservation is necessary."

Day said the service must complete its observations on spring migrations and on summer breeding grounds in the northern states, Canada and Alaska before making its hunting recommendations next July to the Secretary of the Interior.

Tiger Hitting, Fielding Must Improve If Bengals Are To Get In Flag Race

New Orleans, April 5 (P)—It has become more and more apparent this spring that if the Detroit Tigers are going anywhere in the 1947 American League flag race it will be on pitching, certainly not with base-hits.

Manager Steve O'Neill, with a group of flingers generally recognized as the top pitching staff in baseball, has said that the Tigers will have to get hitting as well to make a race of it with the defending Champion Boston Red Sox.

As if to prove their boss knew exactly what he was talking about, the Bengals floundered along with five or six hits a game and won only eight of their 19 spring exhibition games against major league opposition.

Wakefield Weak Fielder
Even with the puny hitting, Detroit would have had better than an even break in the Grapefruit circuit with sounder fielding.

Weak defense and sloppy throwing cost the Tigers at least three exhibition games they otherwise would have won.

With relatively weak hitting support, Detroit's first class pitchers certainly are entitled to the backing of a firm defense.

If such first string performers as Dick Wakefield and Pat Mullin, who were awarded their outfield posts on the strength of their hitting potentialities, don't soon come to life at the plate, O'Neill will be forced to inaugurate some logical shifts to tighten the defense and the Tigers' opening day lineup won't be the cut and dried unit it appeared to be earlier in the spring.

As an outfielder Wakefield isn't exactly a Dominic Di Maggio. Fleet enough afoot, the former University of Michigan star is weak on ground balls and still can learn a lot about throwing. Mullin's chief weakness also is throwing.

So far this spring two of the Tigers' best outfield throwing arms, those of the veterans Roger (Doc) Cramer and Jimmy Outlaw, appear destined to rest on the bench.

Such dependable hurlers as Hal Newhouse, Virgil Trucks, Dick Trout and Freddie Hutchinson can't be expected to win many low score games if the defense behind them is full of holes.

If O'Neill doesn't soon start getting the hitting he expects some of Detroit's first string chores may wind up in the hands of its steady defensive performers—Cramer, Outlaw, Skeeter Webb.

Old timers, sure, but dependable.

that point the Cats had made a game of it, trailing by only 1 run, 2-3.

TROUT WINS, GETS HOMER

Dizzy Has Perfect Day At Bat; Tigers Whip New Orleans, 14-3

New Orleans, April 5 (P)—Pat (Dizzy) Trout treated himself to a big day by pitching a 14-3 victory for the Detroit Tigers over New Orleans today and slugging a homer and three singles in the process.

Besides going the route on the mound, Dizzy smashed a 352-foot four-bagger over the left field fence, scored four runs, and picked up a base on balls with his three other hits for a perfect day at bat.

Trout gave the Southern Association team nine hits while the Tigers clubbed former major leaguers Tommy Sunkel and George Washburn for 16 blows. The Tigers batted around in the second for six runs.

Detroit (A) 063 003 101—14 16 1 N. Or. (SA) 020 001 000—3 9 1 Trout and Swift: Sunkel, Washburn (5) and Walters, Pruett (3).

INDIANS WALLOP GIANTS
The Cleveland Indians set back the New York Giants in Albuquerque today, 15 to 7, bringing the count in their series to 5-4 in favor of the New Yorkers.

Mike Budnick was bumped for six hits and seven runs in three innings. He was relieved by Dick Hoover, who gave up five hits and seven runs in three innings.

SENATORS COME THROUGH
The Washington Senators put on a four-run drive in the sixth in Orlando today to defeat the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-1, in an exhibition game.

CARDS GET 22 HITS
The St. Louis Cards pounded three Houston pitchers for 22 hits and a 16 to 6 victory in Houston today. The Cardinal attack included home runs by Dick Sisler and Enos Slaughter, the latter's with two men on base.

CUBS POUND DALLAS
The Chicago Cubs battered out a 7 to 4 victory over the Texas League Dallas Rebels today before 4,984 cash customers in an exhibition game in Dallas.

The Cubs bunched 12 hits more effectively than the hometowners did their 13, and did a better job of getting under flies, which did tricks in a high wind.

CHISOX STOP CATS
The Chicago White Sox scored seven runs in the seventh inning today to beat the Fort Worth Cats of the Texas League, 10-4. Up to

U. P. SOFTBALL MEETING HERE

Regulations Covering 1947 Play Discussed This Afternoon

Approximately 50 members and delegates of the Upper Peninsula Softball association, representing at least 10 U. P. cities, will convene in the Escanaba council chambers at 2:30 this afternoon to elect officers, discuss regulations and make plans for the 1947 season.

Many important matters of business are on the agenda for the spring organization meeting, George Greenholm, Escanaba, association president, pointed out yesterday.

Among them are the selection of district and U. P. championship tournament sites, designation of U. P. softball districts, appointment of district commissioners, provision of Class C for smaller communities, 60-foot baselines, tournament fees and a study of state regulations.

In addition to Greenholm, other association officers are Buck Erickson, Iron Mountain, first vice-president; Paul Riopelle, Marquette, second vice-president; Paul Vardigan, Escanaba, secretary, and Fred Klaus, Menominee, treasurer.

"The association desires to coordinate activities of all softball groups in the Upper Peninsula to the greatest possible extent for the good of the sport," Greenholm said. "We made great progress last year and we look forward to accomplishing even more this season. Cooperation shown during 1946 was excellent."

"I wish to express my gratitude to all persons and local organizations who cooperated with the association and its officers during 1946. We expect to iron out many problems satisfactorily at the meeting in Escanaba Sunday."

GREENBERG SPARKS DRIVE
Hank Greenberg's smashing double sparked a Pittsburgh first inning drive that gave the Bucs a 5-0 exhibition game victory over the Philadelphia Athletics today. It was Pittsburgh's final game on the Miami Beach training field.

JENSEN MEETS WITH FISHERS

Seeks Views To Present To House Committee On Wednesday

Escanaba's commercial fishermen met in the clubrooms of the American Legion last night to confer with Rep. Roy Jensen of Escanaba upon pending legislation which will affect the commercial fishing industry.

Jensen opened the meeting by summarizing the conservation measures now being considered by the committee on fish and fisheries of the house.

Changes Due Present laws in regard to fishing nets, Jensen said, seem due to be changed. The State department of conservation has suggested that present laws be superseded by an all inclusive law which would bar trap nets from waters deeper than 50 feet. The alternative advanced by the committee on fish is a compromise arrangement which would leave regulations on Lake Huron unchanged, but would keep trap nets in water not deeper than 40 feet on Lake Michigan and Lake Superior.

Another proposed law which allows a fishermen to request an inspection by the conservation department of any net which he felt had shrunk with time and use from a legal to an illegal mesh size. In the event that the mesh was of illegal size, the conservation department would seal it in his possession until he had an opportunity to sell it in some district or state where it was legal, or until the changing conservation laws caught up again with the smaller mesh size and made it again legal.

Murder Mesh Opposed Considerable opposition to the bottom-dragging 2 1/4 inch "murder mesh"—which the state legislature during their last session made legal for the catching of blue-black herring at Menominee—was expressed by the local fisherman, who claimed that the unselective mesh caught a lot of baby trout and perch. It is also possible, Jensen said, emphasizing that it was only his personal opinion, that pickerel may be returned to the commercial fish list, with subsequent benefit to the duck hunters. The duck population has suffered greatly from pickerel raids.

Jensen Active Although not a member of the fish and fisheries committee of the house, Jensen has been in close contact with it, having attended six sessions this term. He expects to present the opinions of the Escanaba fishermen at a public hearing which the committee is holding next Wednesday.

Jensen has been using the Easter holiday to sound out his constituents on various matters. This meeting with the fishermen was his second of the day, earlier in the afternoon, he met with a sportsmen's group, and Friday he attended the state-aid discussion at the School Superintendents' meeting.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Arvey are the parents of a daughter born at eleven o'clock on Saturday night at St. Francis hospital. Mrs. Arvey is the former Mildred Glen, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur A. Glen. It is the first grandchild in the Glen family.

Many people on Santa Lucia in the Windward Islands speak a language compounded of French with a West African syntax.

Although the University of Notre Dame is a Roman Catholic institution, many Protestants and Jews are members of the faculty.
